

The G. K. Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture @ Seton Hall University

Fall / Winter 2011

A Message from the President: Fr. Ian Boyd, C. S. B.

Did you know that...

- 2011 marks the 37th. year of uninterrupted publication of The Chesterton Review?
- The Chesterton Review is now published in five-languages?
English
Spanish
Portuguese
French
Italian
- The Institute is planning to hold a Chesterton Conference in Malta, Poland and Lithuania in 2012?

This newsletter brings you a brief report about the work of the Chesterton Institute during 2011, and an overview of the continuation of our work, upcoming programmes and projects which are reality with the support of Seton Hall University and our supporters.

The continuing development of the Institute's work in Europe and South America is certainly one of them. This year for the third consecutive year we will have conferences in France and Spain and in early November our sixth annual Latin American Series will be held in Chile, Argentina and Uruguay. It has been an extraordinary year of conferences with hundreds of people attending the events including many young students—a new generation of Chestertonians. In August 2011 the Institute co-sponsored the opening show at the 2011 Rimini Meeting: “The Ballad of the White Horse” which was attended by over 3,000 people. This important event coincided with the publication of the first Italian edition of The Chesterton Review. As the interest in Chesterton continues to grow around the world so does our publication The Chesterton Review is published in English, Spanish, French, Portuguese and the newly released Italian edition.

May I make a direct appeal for your financial support for this on-going work? Though we receive occasional grants for specific projects, our yearly budget still requires the help provided each year by readers of The Chesterton Review. The subscribers of our journal form a fellowship, and for almost forty years, your donations—large and small—have enabled us to continue our work of bringing Chesterton's wisdom to a world which is more badly in need of it than it has ever been.

Thank you,

Ian Boyd, C.S.B.

The Work of the G. K. Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture

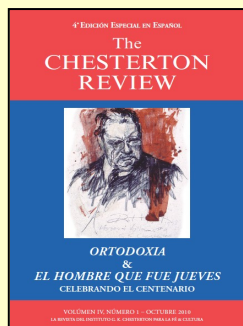

The G. K. Chesterton Institute, a not-for profit educational organization incorporated in the United States, Canada and Great Britain, is located at Seton Hall University, South Orange, N.J. Its purpose is to promote the thought of G. K. Chesterton and his circle and more broadly, to explore the application of Chestertonian ideas in the contemporary world. The Institute's work consists of conferences, lecture series, research and writing.

The Chesterton Review, founded in 1974, has been widely praised both for its scholarship and for the quality of its writing. Edited by Father Ian Boyd, it includes a wide range of articles not only on Chesterton himself, but on the issues close to his heart in the work of other writers and in the modern world. It has devoted special issues to C. S. Lewis, George Bernanos, Hilaire Belloc, Maurice Baring, Christopher Dawson, Cardinal Manning, the Modernist Crisis, J. R. R. Tolkien, Fantasy Literature, and a Special Polish Issue.
