

Lecture: Dr. Liam M. Brockey, Dept. of History Princeton University

Author of Journey to the East: The Jesuit Mission to China, 1579-1724 winner of the John Gilmary Shea Prize 2007—American Catholic Historical Association. He is currently researching popular piety and sacred geography in sixteenth-century Lisbon, as well as writing a collection of biographies of Portuguese bishops, priests and missionaries active in seventeenth-century Brazil, Africa and Asia.

“Doubting Thomas: Early Encounters between Portuguese & Indian Christians, 1500-1600”

February 5, 2009, 3:30pm—Chancellor’s Suite

Reception to Follow

Sponsored by: Departments of History & Asian Studies, the Latin American & Latino Studies Program, the Catholic Studies Program & the Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute

For accommodations due to a disability please call Disability Support Services (973) 313-6003 prior to event