GA POSITION AVAILABLE—NOT POSTED ONLINE

In addition to filling this out of the College of A&S, I am (hopefully) looking for someone who is able to make a 2 year commitment. This is basically an administrative position; I am working on growing the center, making it more visible on campus, and expanding the services offered, and the GA position is crucial to me in order to get this done. ARC handles tutoring, test proctoring, academic and scholarships advising. We also run the University's concurrent enrollment program, Project Acceleration, which brings us into contact with local high schools. If anyone is interested, they can send me a cover letter and resume, or feel free to contact me with questions. Peter.Hynes@shu.edu. For the complete job description, please email Ryan at ouel-lery@shu.edu.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES CALL TO ACTION

The 20th Century saw - the creation of the social safety net with social security, food stamps, Medicare, and the creation of the poverty line. With these programs, the number of Americans in poverty declined. Today, with record unemployment, home foreclosures, and the financial crisis, the faces of the poor have become all too familiar. President and CEO of Catholic Charities U.S.A., Fr. Larry Snyder, requests your feedback on a national campaign on college campuses this fall to raise awareness of the need to reduce poverty today. To become active in the conversation, please register at our online forum at <http://mybigidea.socialsphere.net/home/>.
