

Disclosure of Education/Training Outcomes

This information provided in accordance with the American Psychological Association – Committee on Accreditation (202-336-5979). This information was last updated on 09/09.

Student Attrition Rate

Since 2000, 56 students have matriculated in the program. Of these, 9 (16.1%) have left the program for various reasons.

Time to Completion

The following table indicates the time students have taken to complete the program, beginning with those who were admitted in 1994.

Graduated in less than 5 years	13%
Graduated in 5 years	37%
Graduated in 6 years	22%
Graduated in 7 years	11%
Graduated in > 7 years	13%
Mean = 5.8 years
Median = 4.9 years

Estimated First Year Cost (updated as of 09/09)

The cost per credit is $901. First year students typically take 24 credits over their first three semesters, including the summer. This, the average first year cost for tuition is $21,624. In addition to tuition, the technology fee is $200, and there is a university use fee of $105, making the total first year cost $21,929. Note that this does not include room, board, or books.

Internships – Most recent seven years of graduates (updated as of 09/09)

39 students have graduated from the program in the most recent 8 years
38 (97.4%) obtained paid internships
25 (64.1%) obtained APPIC member internships
21 (53.8%) obtained APA accredited internships
1 (2.6%) obtained two year half-time internships

Licensing Information – Most recent ten years of graduates (updated as of 09/09)

20 (44.44%) graduates have obtained licensure
7 (15.55%) graduates have obtained state permits
6 (13.33%) graduates have obtained LPC certification
3 (6.66%) graduates have applied for a state permit
3 (6.66%) graduates have obtained academic positions
3 (6.66%) graduates have obtained school psychologist licensure