Our Mission

Seton Hall is a major Catholic university. In a diverse and collaborative environment it focuses on academic and ethical development. Seton Hall students are prepared to be leaders in their professional and community lives in a global society and are challenged by outstanding faculty, an evolving technologically advanced setting and values-centered curricula.

AS APPROVED BY THE SETON HALL UNIVERSITY BOARD OF REGENTS, JUNE 6, 1996.
Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, from whom our University takes its name and its inspiration, lived and breathed a lifelong commitment to education. As a visionary and the principal architect of our country's parochial school system, her deepest and most dearly held conviction was to form responsible citizens capable of bringing to society the wisdom, knowledge, competence and integrity it so desperately needed, then and, perhaps even more so, now.

Today we use the term "servant leader" to encapsulate our commitment to that foundational concept.

"It has been the only desire of my soul to know the Truth," Mother Seton once wrote, nearly two centuries ago. As our University celebrates its Sesquicentennial - 150 years of service to you, the students, who are the most important members of our community - I can say without hesitation that our desire remains the same: The courses contained in this catalogue have as their ultimate goal that truth which our patroness sought with her whole heart, mind and strength.

Truth in all its wonderfully rich and varied aspects, theological and scientific, philosophical and literary, is the stated aim and essential characteristic of a Seton Hall education, which seeks to form servant leaders willing and able to give something of lasting value to the society in which they live and work.

Please keep this in mind as you glance through the pages of this catalogue and prepare for the academic year. In selecting your courses, know that you are embarking on a great adventure and following tens of thousands who have gone before you, each pursuing that truth, which alone sets us free.

Godspeed on this, one of the greatest adventures of your life!

Monsignor Robert Sheeran
President
Seton Hall University
This catalogue is your practical guide to the academic programs of Seton Hall University. In it you will find the answers to your questions about admissions, specific academic programs, degree requirements, and student services in the various schools, colleges, and other divisions of the University. You should keep a copy of the catalogue from your year of admission, as that catalogue constitutes the academic agreement between you and the University concerning program and degree requirements. Undergirding these programs and requirements is a philosophy of Catholic education informed by 150 years of experience. During that century and a half the United States has grown into a world power and Seton Hall has grown into a large and complex institution, yet it remains faithful in the new global context to the vision of its namesake, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, still developing what we now call servant leaders, but now for a global society.

The great nineteenth century educator and writer, John Henry Cardinal Newman, famously once asserted that “the true and adequate end of intellectual training and of a university is not learning or acquirement, but rather is thought or reason exercised upon knowledge, or what may be called philosophy.”* A quaint relic of a bygone era? Or an enduring truth concerning the ultimate aim of a proper university education, especially one whose Catholic philosophy demands that it educate the whole person, one whose knowledge is combined with character and a desire to serve others, and all for the greater glory of God? To gain the fully enriched life for which a Seton Hall experience can prepare you, I suggest that on occasion at least, you take a few moments from your busy days to reflect on Newman’s aphorism.

The Seton Hall Sports Poll at the Sharkey Institute
Richard Gentile, B.A., Director

The Seton Hall Sports Poll at the Sharkey Institute, a new initiative of the Center for Sport Management within the Stillman School of Business, officially launched in the Fall 2006 semester. The Institute will serve as a source of polling services and survey research dedicated to sport, placing the University in a domain unoccupied by any other university in America.

Founded with a generous donation from Thomas J. Sharkey and his wife Ruth, the Seton Hall Sports Poll serves as a barometer of public opinion on the important issues confronting sports today. The distinction of the Seton Hall Sports Poll is that it will be strictly focused on current sport issues. Since no other polling institute centers itself on sport, the Sharkey Institute will occupy a unique niche with immense traction in the marketplace. The dynamics of the sport industry provide an ideal opportunity for the Institute to present newsworthy findings on a regular basis.

The Sharkey Institute will also impact the broader curriculum within the Stillman School and throughout the University. Among the numerous educational opportunities, marketing courses will have the benefit of a live market research center, and students in their core statistics classes can analyze real-time data. Management students can develop planning and organizing competencies required to run a polling center, and students in communication can craft news releases for use in the Setonian and on WSOU regarding the findings of the latest polls. The business faculty may help shape emerging ethical sports questions. In all, the prospects to expand students’ learning to other important niches within the University are robust.
Admission Information

Students are expected to acquaint themselves with all procedures and requirements applying to graduate studies, as well as with specific requirements of the college and department in which they intend to study. Graduate admissions materials are available through the following areas:

Degree Requirements

To qualify for a graduate degree, students must fulfill all course, examination and other requirements prescribed by the department. Only graduate coursework may be applied to a graduate degree. In rare instances, an upper-level undergraduate course may be counted toward a graduate degree on the recommendation of the department chair and dean. Degree candidacy must be established in keeping with departmental and school standards.

Advanced degrees are not awarded automatically upon completion of a required number of courses or credit. Such degrees are awarded for demonstrated achievement in scholarship. A GPA of 3.0 is required for graduate degree eligibility.

The University reserves the right to close, cancel or modify any academic program and to suspend admission to any program.

Please refer to the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue, pages 36-42, for complete information regarding academic policies and procedures.

Graduate Grading System

Effective with the Fall 2004 semester, the University modified its grading system to include minus grades. This change is not retroactive to any prior semester.

The University uses the following letter grades on the graduate level to indicate the record of achievement in courses taken:

Student Life

The Galleon Room is located in the lower level of the Bishop Dougherty University Center. It is open from 7 a.m.-1 a.m., seven days a week when the University is in regular session. The Galleon Room is divided into two sections, the Galleon Food Court and the Pirate Dining Room. The Galleon Food Court accepts Pirate Dollars, Pirate's Gold and cash. This section of the room allows students to purchase food on an “a la carte” basis from different stations in a food court setting (hours are listed below). The Pirate Dining Room is designed for traditional style dining and uses the meal per week portion of the meal plan, cash or Pirate’s Gold to access the area. Once inside the student has the choice of several buffet selections with unlimited returns. Below are the hours of operation for both areas.

The Pirate’s Cove, the University coffeehouse, is located on the first level of the University Center. The Pirate’s Cove offers a wide range of Starbucks coffees, teas, smoothies, soda, specialty sandwiches and desserts in a relaxing coffeehouse atmosphere. It is open Monday - Thursday 8 a.m.-11 p.m., Friday 8 a.m.-3 p.m., closed on Saturday and on Sunday when the University is in regular session.

Seton Hall University’s Meal Plan Program allows students to select one of six options. Each student’s ID card has a set number of meals per week plus Pirate Dollars that can be used to purchase products from the Galleon Food Court and Pirate’s Cove, or to enter the Pirate Dining Room. In the Pirate Dining Room portion of the meal program, students will have one meal deducted every time they enter. Once in the Pirate Dining Room, students are allowed to eat whatever they choose with unlimited returns. Each student’s number of meals will be reset according to his or her meal plan every Monday morning. A display at the register shows the amount being charged and the balance of meals or points remaining. Additionally, there is a plan specially designed for commuters only which allows them access to the benefits of a meal plan. Plans are active during the entire Fall and Spring semesters, however, they are not active between the Fall and Spring semesters (Christmas) or the Spring and Fall semesters (summer). Meals remaining at the end of each week throughout the semester are not refundable.

Information concerning current Resident Meal Plans can be found at http://studentaffairs.shu.edu/housing/mealplans0405.htm or by calling (973) 761-9559.

Identification Cards/Card Access
The Campus ID Office provides identification cards to University students, faculty and staff. The card is utilized for identification, access, meal plans, Pirate Dollars and Pirate’s Gold. All members of the University community must present a University identification card upon request to any University official, representative or campus security officer. Identification cards must be presented at residence halls, the Recreation Center, the computer center and Walsh Library. It is also used for access into many academic buildings and labs.

Pirate’s Gold
The Pirate’s Gold acts as a debit card that is part of the ID card program. Seton Hall cardholders can add money to their card to be used at various locations on campus. These locations are: the bookstore, dining facilities, residence hall laundries, and vending.

Application and Admission

Applicants to graduate study in the College of Arts and Sciences are expected to meet the general University requirements for admission and to comply with its admission procedures.

Department and program descriptions include specific admission requirements for the individual graduate degree programs. Every application for admission to graduate study at the College of Arts and Sciences is evaluated carefully by the graduate admissions committee for each program. Information about the graduate programs and applications available online can be found at artsci.shu.edu/

Degree Requirements
In addition to the general University requirements, the College of Arts and Sciences requires the candidate to:
- complete department course and credit requirements; and
- pass the comprehensive and/or language examinations where required.

Foreign Language Requirement
Some departments in the College of Arts and Sciences require candidates to demonstrate ability to read material pertinent to their fields in one foreign language. See individual program descriptions for further information.

This requirement may be met by satisfactorily completing a special language course or by passing a reading proficiency examination. Information about examination dates is available from the department.

Comprehensive Examination
The successful completion of a comprehensive examination is required in some departments of the College of Arts and Sciences. University regulations concerning this examination are detailed in “The Comprehensive Examination” and “Continuity” in the Academic Policies and Procedures section of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue.
Department of Asian Studies

New concentration added to the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue (see page 55):
M.A. in Asian Studies with a Track in Teaching Chinese Language and Culture

Beginning in fall 2006, the Department of Asian Studies will offer a new graduate component in the Master of Arts (M.A.) in Asian Studies. The program will prepare students to meet the Chinese content area requirement for a New Jersey Certificate of Eligibility (CE). The curriculum includes courses in the Chinese language, literature, history, civilization, Chinese linguistics, applied linguistics, and teaching methods. Upon successful completion of 39 credits, students will receive a Master of Arts in Asian Studies degree from Seton Hall University, and be qualified to enter an alternate route program through which they can earn a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing that leads to the New Jersey State teaching certificate.

Admission

In addition to the general University requirements for admission to graduate studies, candidates for admission to the M.A. in Asian Studies with a concentration in Teaching Chinese Language and Culture should show a strong proficiency in both English and Chinese. All non-native speakers of Chinese are required to take the Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi (HSK), a national standard Chinese language proficiency test. International students and those who have received their baccalaureate degrees from universities outside the United States are required to submit official TOEFL scores.

New degree program and courses added to the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue (see page 93):

Program Description

The Master of Arts (M.A.) in History provides excellent training to students pursuing a range of careers, including education and library science, and those planning to undertake doctoral studies in history. It is particularly appealing to K-12 teachers wishing to pursue study in this field to enhance their knowledge and build their credentials. This versatile program invites students to choose a concentration suited to individual interests, encourages them to conduct original historical research, and engages them in the most significant historical debates and fields of study. Students can work closely with knowledgeable professors on a wide range of topics.

Degree Requirements

The Department of History's Master of Arts degree program has four concentrations: United States, European, Global, and Catholic History. The program requires successful completion of 10 courses (30 credits). All students must take an introductory course called "The Historian's Craft," a minimum of one Program in Directed Readings (PDR) course, four courses in the chosen area of concentration, and electives in other areas. Advanced graduate students may choose to conduct two semesters of thesis research and writing or to complete comprehensive written and oral examinations in the final semester of study. Those continuing for a doctorate are strongly urged to complete a thesis.

The graduate program requires all students to pass a foreign language translation exam (proving reading knowledge), or demonstrate mastery of advanced statistical methods. Students are expected to be, or to become, familiar with computer technology and with the major databases used to access historical materials.

Capstone: Thesis and Oral/Written Examination Options

Students within the M.A. program have the option of choosing between researching and writing a graduate thesis or undertaking both a 180-minute written examination and an oral examination at the conclusion of their final semester in the program.

Options within the Degree Programs/Admission Requirements

The M.A. degree may be obtained through completing requirements within one of two distinct options: first, through a five year (B.A./M.A.) accelerated degree program available both to Seton Hall history majors and education/history majors; and second, through the traditional Master of Arts (M.A.) degree program that is available to qualified candidates who have successfully earned a baccalaureate degree prior to enrollment in this graduate program.

I. B.A./M.A. Dual Degree Option
This study option is designed to allow for completion of both the undergraduate (B.A.) and graduate (M.A.) degrees in a total of 10 semesters (five years of study). After having completed 75 credits toward a B.A. with at least 21 credits in history, students may apply for admission to this joint degree program. Accepted candidates will normally be expected to enroll in two approved graduate-level history courses each semester of their senior year of study for a total of 12 credits. During the fifth year of study, students will be expected to enroll in a total of three approved graduate-level courses each semester for a total of 18 credits.

To qualify for admission, students must have completed HIST 2180: Introduction to Historical Research Methods; and must be showing consistent progress toward a B.A. in History with a minimum overall GPA of 3.40 and a minimum history GPA of 3.40. During the application process, students will be asked to produce a statement of intent outlining their reasons for pursuing the M.A. in History at Seton Hall; official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken at the undergraduate level; three letters of recommendation, including two from Department of History faculty; and a writing sample demonstrating the student's academic potential.

II. M.A. Degree Option
This study option is designed to allow for completion of the graduate degree in four semesters (two years of study). During their first year of graduate study, students are expected to enroll in three approved graduate-level courses per semester. During their second year of study, students are expected to enroll in the remaining four approved graduate-level courses. Though this is designed for completion within two years, students have the freedom to complete their course work, research, and writing over a longer span of time by attending on a part-time basis.

Students accepted directly into the M.A. degree program will have completed a baccalaureate degree prior to beginning course work in the M.A. degree program, preferably in history or a history-related field such as political science, geography, or economics. Students who have majored in other fields may be asked to take up to four undergraduate courses in history. During the application process, applicants will be asked to produce a statement of intent outlining their reasons for pursuing the M.A. in History at Seton Hall; official transcripts documenting all academic work undertaken; three letters of recommendation; official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores; and a writing sample demonstrating the student's academic potential.

Curriculum Changes and Additions

Pre-Qualification Sequence

Pre-qualification courses are designed to help students update and refresh their basic business skills. All students must complete the pre-qualification sequence as outlined below, or in the alternative, be waived from certain courses based upon prior coursework or by examination. The pre-qualification courses and their instructional hours are as follows:

- Legal Studies (BMBA 8009) 12 hours (Required for Hub I, III)
- Accounting (BMBA 8010) 16 hours (Required for Hub I, III)
- Economics (BMBA 8011) 16 hours (Required for Hub I)
- Finance (BMBA 8013) 16 hours (Required for Hub I)
- Math (BMBA 8018) 8 hours (Required for Hub I, II)
- Statistics (BMBA 8019) 12 hours (Required for Hub I, II)
- MIS I (BMBA 8020) 4 hours (Required for Hub I, II)
- MIS II (BMBA 8021) 4 hours (Required for Hub I, II)

Students may apply for waivers of pre-qualification courses through the Stillman School's Director of Admissions. The Admissions Committee will review all requests in conjunction with the dean's office. The waiver policies for specific pre-qualification courses are as follows:

- Legal Studies: Business Law or the equivalent taken within five years of enrolling in the M.B.A. program. Students may opt to take the Legal Studies Pre-Qualification Challenge Examination; a passing grade on that exam will waive the requirement to take the pre-qualification course.

- Accounting: Financial Accounting or the equivalent taken within seven years of enrolling in the M.B.A. program. Students may opt to take the Legal Studies Pre-Qualification Challenge Examination; a passing grade on that exam will waive the requirement to take the pre-qualification course.

- Economics: Six credits of undergraduate economics taken within seven years of enrolling in the M.B.A. program. A student with only 3 credits of undergraduate economics may opt to take the Economics Pre-Qualification Challenge Examination; a passing grade on that exam will waive the requirement to take the pre-qualification course.

- Finance: A business degree earned or any basic finance course taken within five years of enrolling in the M.B.A. program.

MIS, Math and Statistics: Four areas of prerequisite knowledge are covered. These areas are: (1) basic mathematics; (2) basic statistics; (3) information technology “office” skills (i.e., proficiency in word processing, spreadsheet design and implementation, presentation graphics, and Web usage); and (4) fundamental concepts of information technology. All entering students must either place out of each of these skill areas via the corresponding “challenge” exam offered by the School, or take and pass the pre-qualification course in that area. The Math pre-qualification course (BMBA 8018) will be waived for students who possess an undergraduate degree with a major in math. The MIS pre-qualification courses will be waived for students who have successfully completed an undergraduate MIS course within five years of enrolling in the M.B.A. program.

- BMGT 7962 Managerial Negotiating

Note: Students must complete all prerequisite requirements for the courses selected.

Because the certificate is not a degree, graduates from the certificate program do not participate in University Commencement Exercises.

Students wishing to formally apply to the Stillman School's M.B.A. program upon completion of the certificate must follow the regular application process for graduate business programs. Courses taken for the certificate can be applied to reduce the number of credits that would otherwise be completed for the M.B.A. degree.

Certificate in Entrepreneurial Studies

(new certificate program for Business Students, effective Fall 2006)

The Certificate in Entrepreneurial Studies is composed of four 3-credit courses (12 credits): BMGT 7540, BMGT 7962, BLAW 7319 and one graduate management elective course. The focus of the Certificate is to provide students with both a theoretical basis and the practical hands-on skills they will need to launch a new business venture and grow that business venture successfully. This certificate is for graduate students who are interested in (1) studying entrepreneurship for their own venture in family businesses or for small companies or (2) developing entrepreneurial skills, creative thinking and innovative approaches as career-builders working for large corporations. The Certificate program provides students with an overview of the different stages of the entrepreneurial process and gives them the skills and knowledge they need to succeed at each stage in the process. A student who wishes to earn the Certificate should consult with the faculty and the department chair to ensure that the elective course selected is in line with the student’s academic/career objectives.

B.A. or B.S./M.B.A. Program

(replaces text on pages 108-109 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

The College of Arts and Sciences and the Stillman School offer a joint program that leads to two degrees: a bachelor's degree in a liberal arts or science and a Master of Business Administration.

The unique feature of this program is that both degrees can be earned in five years. By carefully selecting courses, the student can complete the requirements for both degrees in as few as 160 credit hours. The student spends the first three years taking arts and sciences courses. After the completion of 75 credit hours, the student applies for the M.B.A. program. Students must meet all requirements for admission to the M.B.A. program, including earning a GMAT score of 500 or higher and attaining an undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or above. If accepted, the student takes a mixture of arts and sciences and business courses in the fourth year. The fifth year is reserved exclusively for graduate business courses. When the student has completed all undergraduate degree requirements and 130 credit hours, the student receives a bachelor's degree. After completing the M.B.A. requirements and a minimum of 160 total credit hours, the student also receives an M.B.A.

Purpose

The purpose of the program is twofold:

1. Students receive a broad-based undergraduate education. Students major in an arts and sciences discipline to gain a broad perspective in the humanities and social and physical sciences and a comprehensive grasp of one arts and sciences major;

2. Students begin graduate coursework while completing a bachelor’s degree. This enables the arts and sciences student to obtain an M.B.A. with one additional year of study.
Basic Principles and Requirements

In offering this program, Seton Hall operates on three basic principles:

1. Students must complete their undergraduate arts and sciences courses and fulfill the requirements for an undergraduate major;

2. Students must apply for and gain admission to the M.B.A. program after the completion of a minimum of 75 credit hours in arts and sciences; and

3. The joint program requires a minimum of 160 credit hours; within this number, a student completes specified arts and sciences requirements, an undergraduate arts and sciences major field, and the specified M.B.A. curriculum.

The breakdown of the minimum 160 credit hours is as follows:

1. Students complete the core curriculum of the College of Arts and Sciences and major field requirements. The total credits vary depending upon the requirements of the major field.

2. Students complete the following undergraduate and graduate business courses:

   - BLAW 2301 – Legal Foundations of Business 3 credits
   - BACC 2103 – Financial Accounting 3 credits
   - BMBA 9103 – Financial Accounting and Legal Considerations (Hub III) 4 credits
   - BMBA 9104 – Human Interaction and Market Orientation (Hub IV) 4 credits
   - BMBA 9201 – Social Responsibility 2 credits
   - BMBA 9202 – International Perspective 2 credits

3. Remaining M.B.A. curriculum requirements, including 12-15 credits in the selected concentration area, are fulfilled by taking graduate business courses.

The total credit hours consist of 118 undergraduate credits and 42-45 graduate business credits. Students must consult their major advisers in the College of Arts and Sciences for specific information. Graduate course information is available through the Stillman School’s Student Information Office, Jubilee Hall, Room 526, (973) 761-9222.

B.A./M.B.A. Curriculum

1. Arts and Sciences Core Requirements.

2. Major Fields: anthropology, art history, biology, chemistry, classical studies, communication, economics, English, fine arts, history, modern languages, music history, political science, psychology, religious studies, and sociology.

Consult course descriptions for more details. If these requirements can be met in fewer than 160 credit hours, students may take elective courses to complete the 160 credit-hour minimum.

New Courses

BACC 7126 Enterprise-Wide Accounting Information Systems I

The course is designed to provide an understanding of the roles of accounting information and information technology in the decision-making and operational support of the firm. Relational databases and data modeling are covered in significant detail. Students will become familiar with the revenue, expenditure, conversion and general ledger transaction processing subsystems. Students will develop an awareness of the impact of accounting information systems on managerial decisions as well as organizational competitiveness. Students will also learn about the role of information technology and accounting information systems in facilitating e-commerce. Prerequisite: BACC 7112 or equivalent with a grade of C- or better. Offered: Fall. 3 credits

BACC 7127 Enterprise-Wide Accounting Information Systems II

This course will provide participants with a clear understanding of various enterprise applications like accounting, contracts, work orders, materials requirement planning and process manufacturing. Each application will be studied through an extensive REA model. In addition, the course will cover important issues including information systems security and auditing, evaluation and implementation of information systems. Students will apply topics relating to controls and security to an enterprise-wide information system. Prerequisite: BACC 7126. Offered: Spring. 3 credits
Master of Arts in Diplomacy and International Relations

The graduate curriculum combines interdisciplinary global studies with research methodology and policy analysis, culminating in a professional internship and major research project. To attain the M.A. degree, students complete a total of 45 credit hours, satisfying core curriculum requirements and concentrating in two fields of specialization. Specializations offer students the opportunity to structure their academic studies according to their particular interests, career goals and background. Among the functional specializations offered are human rights, international economics and development, international organizations, international law, negotiation and conflict management, global health and human security, foreign policy analysis, and international security. Regional specializations in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean, and the Middle East are also available.

At the Whitehead School of Diplomacy, graduate students of diverse cultural, educational and professional backgrounds form an international academic community. The graduate program fosters leadership and civic responsibility, while sharpening analytical and practical skills. Small classes create a supportive environment that encourages mentoring relationships. An active graduate student association engages in a variety of projects and activities. Graduate assistantships, research assistantships and positions on the student-edited Seton Hall Journal of Diplomacy and International Relations are awarded on a competitive basis.

The School participates in six dual degree programs designed to prepare students to bring diplomacy to the professions of business, law, communications and nonprofit management, and to specialize in Asian studies.

Degree Requirements
(replaces text on pages 125-127 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

II. Regional Specializations

- DIPL 6153 Comparative Political Economic Development
- DIPL 6170 Advanced Topics in Economic Development for International Affairs

For a specific regional specialization, provided the student completes the region-specific requirements within those courses.
New Courses

DIPL 6131 Causes of War
What causes war? What do we need to know to prevent war if possible, and prepare for it when necessary? This course first systematically examines major schools of thoughts on the origins and prevention of war, including power and system-level theories of war and peace, domestic and societal sources of conflict, misperception and miscalculation, and psychological and emotional causes of war. The second part of this course applies these theoretical approaches to a series of important historical and contemporary cases of war and conflict in world politics. 3 credits

DIPL 6132 American Grand Strategy
Grand strategy is the collection of political and military means and ends with which a state attempts to achieve security. This course examines the formulation, implementation, and outcomes of American grand strategy. It particularly explores the structure, operation, and capacity of American military establishment. It also covers the evolution of American grand strategy beginning with the containment strategy during the Cold War, to nuclear deterrence and arms control policy, followed by post-Cold War debates on American strategies of engagement, humanitarian intervention and democracy promotion to cope with the new security environment. 3 credits

DIPL 6133 Energy and Resources Security
As result of increasing global demands for energy, natural resources, and clean environment, serious conflict of interest has emerged among nations and can potentially lead to deadly violence. Using carefully selected case studies, this course addresses these pressing security concerns. Topics covered include international politics of oil, water disputes, environmental conflict, and contention for fishery and other maritime resources. 3 credits

Dual Degree Programs
The Whitehead School of Diplomacy and International Relations participates in six graduate dual degree programs with the Seton Hall School of Law, the Stillman School of Business, and within the College of Arts and Sciences, the Department of Public Administration, the Program in Corporate Communications and the Department of Asian Studies. Each program has its own admission process. Applicants for a dual degree program must be accepted separately to each program, either at the time of initial enrollment or during the first semester. Please consult the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue for further information.
Department of Professional Psychology and Family Therapy

Revised Course Description

CPSY 6310 Psychology and Sociology of Addictions

M.A. in Education – College Student Personnel Administration (CSPA)
(replaces text on pages 168-169 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

The M.A. program of College Student Personnel Administration (CSPA) at Seton Hall University is committed to the preparation of practitioners for positions in student affairs administration at the post-secondary level. The program offers a balance of classroom-based academic learning and field-based experiential learning opportunities. Students are introduced to theory, research, policy, and practice related to higher education administration in general and student affairs administration in particular. Graduates from the CSPA program will be well equipped to pursue careers in administration and management positions in student affairs in postsecondary institutions and/or to continue doctoral education in higher education administration, policy, and research.

Admissions Policy

In addition to the general University requirements for admission to graduate studies, applicants to this program must present:
- Transcripts of course work for the baccalaureate degree and other graduate programs;
- Scores on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) or Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within five years;
- Statement of personal and professional goals;
- Resume of professional background;
- Two letters of recommendation.

Program Requirement

Students must complete a minimum of 36 credit hours, including the following:

I. Major (18 credits)

Eligibility for Certification
Upon completion of the Post Baccalaureate Certificate program, students are eligible for recommendation to the State of New Jersey for the certificate of eligibility with advanced standing as a classroom teacher. A passing score on the appropriate Praxis examination is also required for the certificate of eligibility with advanced standing. Under current New Jersey state regulations, the student must then successfully serve one year as a provisionally certified teacher before the state will grant standard (permanent) certification.

Although there are reciprocal certification agreements among many states, these are subject to change. Students from states other than New Jersey should check with their state’s Department of Education for specific requirements. Seton Hall University’s average pass rate on the Praxis exam is 95 percent. The New Jersey statewide average is 95 percent. These figures represent the cohort year 2004-2005.

Early Childhood Certification
The Early Childhood Certification Program is available for qualified non-degree seeking graduate candidates who provide a certificate of eligibility from the State Department of Education. Following the completion of the five courses, candidates are eligible for recommendation to the State of New Jersey for Early Childhood Certification.

Master's Programs
The College of Nursing offers nine 30-46 credit majors leading to the Master of Science in Nursing degree. Areas of concentration include Health Systems Administration; Advanced Practice Nurse: Acute Care Nurse Practitioner; Pediatric Nurse Practitioner; Adult Nurse Practitioner; Gerontological Nurse Practitioner; Women's Health Nurse Practitioner; Case Management/Health Administration and Master of Science in School Nursing.

Graduates are prepared to function both independently and interdependently with other members of the health delivery system and with consumers of nursing service. A base for continued inquiry and contributions to the art and science of nursing is provided, as are the knowledge and skills to exert a leadership role in the formulation of healthcare policy. The program is preparatory to doctoral study.

The College also offers a 30-credit Master of Arts in Nursing Education for nurses who hold a Master of Science in Nursing. The M.A. in Nursing Education program also can be completed in combination with any of the clinical specialization programs offered by the Graduate Nursing Program.

Certificate Programs
Five certification programs are offered: a School Nurse Certification program of 30 credits; a 12 credit graduate-level certificate in Nursing Administration; a 12-credit, graduate-level certificate in Nursing Case Management; a 6-credit Lamaze International Childbirth Educator certificate program; and a post-master's 28-34 credit certification program for nurse practitioners.

Joint Degree Programs
Seton Hall University's College of Nursing and the Stillman School of Business have joined to offer a dual degree M.S.N., Health Systems Administration/Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.).

Doctoral Program
The College of Nursing offers a 46-credit post master's in nursing program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing (Ph.D.).

M.S.N., Health Systems Administration

Nurse executives require the sound clinical knowledge and business skills necessary to function effectively within today's integrated healthcare delivery systems. Students will be taught organizational and financial management perspectives on organizations that provide services through horizontal and vertical integration initiatives throughout the continuum of care.

Graduates will be fully prepared to advocate for and direct the provision of high quality patient care while at the same time addressing realities of the costs.

The M.S.N. in Health Systems Administration focuses on the new sets of skills demanded by today's healthcare environment: teamwork, global thinking, multitasking, creativity and flexibility.

Along with clinical expertise, students learn to be responsive to the needs of multiple constituencies from patients to physicians in a multidisciplinary environment that integrates the latest technology into the strategic planning process. Students are empowered with the requisite management skills to be the leading healthcare decision-makers.

M.S.N., Health Systems Administration/Master of Business Administration, M.B.A.
(replaces text on pages 201-202 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

Seton Hall University's College of Nursing and the Stillman School of Business, both recognized leaders in their fields, have joined to offer nurses the clinical knowledge and business skills needed to function effectively within today's integrated healthcare delivery systems. Graduates receive both an M.S.N. (Master of Nursing, Health Systems Administration) and an M.B.A. (Master of Business Administration). As nurse executives, they will be fully prepared to advocate quality patient care while at the same time addressing administrative issues.

The M.S.N. in Health Systems Administration focuses on the new set of skills demanded by today's healthcare environment: teamwork, global thinking, multitasking, creativity and flexibility. Along with clinical expertise, students learn to be responsive to the needs of multiple constituencies from patients to physicians. The M.B.A. provides a newly revised multidisciplinary environment integrating the latest technology into the strategic planning process.

Students are empowered with the requisite management skills to be the leading healthcare decision makers of the new century. The combined M.S.N./M.B.A. program offers both full-time and part-time options to meet the needs and time constraints of nurse professionals. Students will take 24 credits within the College of Nursing and 30 credits within the School of Business.

Full-time students can complete the M.S.N. and M.B.A. in two years. A part-time option allows students to complete the M.S.N. and M.B.A. in as few as 36 months.

The Faculty
Faculty members at the College of Nursing and Stillman School of Business include distinguished educators and prolific researchers who bring real-world management perspectives to the learning environment. Students receive truly individualized personal attention, as well as supportive career direction and guidance. All students will be assigned to the program director of the M.S.N./M.B.A. program as their academic adviser.

M.A. Program in Nursing Education and Combination M.S.N./M.A. Program

The Graduate Nursing Program offers a Master of Arts in Nursing Education to prepare nurses who have already completed a master's degree in advanced practice for positions in educational settings that include the following: in-service education, continuing education and higher education.

The M.A. in Nursing Education can be completed in combination with any of the advanced practice programs offered at Seton Hall, or following the completion of any NLNAC or CCNE accredited master's program in which the applicant majored in an advanced practice specialization. The combination M.S.N. and M.A. program requires completion of a total of 62 credits. Additional courses may be required depending upon the specialty selected.

M.S.N. – Nurse Practitioner

(replaces text on pages 203-205 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

Students selecting the nurse practitioner tracks are prepared as providers of health care to younger, older age groups or women. Students in the adult and aged (older) track focus on primary prevention and the management of acute minor or stabilized chronic illnesses in ambulatory or selected acute care settings.

Students in the younger track providing health care to children may: (1) have a focus on the maintenance and promotion of health and the management of children with minor, acute and/or chronic illness in ambulatory care settings; (2) focus on the maintenance and promotion of health of the school-age population with emphasis placed on the assessment and management of children with disorders that impede the learning process; or (3) focus on restoration and promotion of health for children in acute care settings.

Students enrolled in the women's health track addresses the health needs of women, throughout the lifespan, not just the reproductive years, providing graduates with a wide range of options for practice upon completion of the program. Students gain the knowledge and skills needed to assess and manage common/acute illnesses, pre and postnatal care, gynecological problems, menopause, and common concerns of women as they age. Strategies for health promotion and disease prevention include identification of high-risk situations and provision of health education and counseling in areas such as infertility, problem pregnancies, sexuality, mental health and alternative therapies. Clinical experiences in Women's Health take place within primary and specialty offices, hospital, and community settings, depending on the student's interests, experience, and career goals.

There are two major emphases of role preparation for the nurse practitioner: (1) to develop expertise in the provision of health care; and (2) to develop leaders for interdisciplinary health care. Students complete courses in theory of advanced nursing practice, where they develop skill in making independent clinical judgments, as well as participate in experiences involving peer review; client advocacy, the development of collaborative, interdisciplinary relationships and role negotiation. Clinical instruction is carried out by nurse/physician teams that actively model collaborative practice behaviors. This model of instruction allows the student to see the complementary roles of the advanced practice nurse and the physician and demonstrates the unique contributions of nursing to the care of clients. An introductory basic physical assessment course is required within three years of beginning Graduate Nursing Practicum I.

Master of Science in Nursing

Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

This program prepares the professional nurse in advanced practice to provide care for acutely ill adults in a variety of settings incorporating a sub-specialty of forensic nursing. The program includes a core of nursing theory, as well as didactic and clinical courses.

A basic introductory physical assessment course is required within three years of beginning Graduate Nursing Practicum I.

The program explores biopsychosocial dimensions of individuals and holistic comprehensive management of acutely ill adults. Clinical experience enables the student to follow clients from entry into the healthcare delivery system through acute illness, discharge and home care. Students work with clients and families to achieve the highest attainable level of functional capacity.

The curriculum was designed to meet the Standards of Clinical Practice set forth by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses and the American Nurses Association (1995) in addition to the competencies developed by the American Nurses Credential Center (1996) and the National Organization of Nurse Practitioner Faculties. Graduates will be eligible to sit for the ACNP certification exam.

M.S.N., Case Management/Health Administration
(replaces text on pages 205-206 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

In the current healthcare climate of rapid change in technology and patient care services, coupled with increasing implementation of managed care systems, healthcare professionals are seeking mechanisms for enhancing quality while accomplishing cost-effective care. Nurses who focus their professional efforts on case management can not afford to do so isolated from the larger realities that drive the organization and, indeed, the entire health care continuum. It is essential for those involved in case management to have a thorough understanding of organizational structures and operations, as well as the financial imperatives that are the foundation of these structures and operations. Knowledge of the continuum of resources available within the healthcare delivery system and in the community is essential. Integration of case management initiatives into the strategic mission of the organization facilitates a collaboration that will produce integrated programs providing the best possible patient care outcomes and ensuring organizational survival and success.

The program requires a total of 30 credits and can be completed in two years by full-time students. Part-time students may complete the program in as few as 30 months.

M.S.N. in School Nursing

This program reflects the conviction that the school nurse plays a significant role both in the school and the community as a health care provider. The curriculum is designed to include information of specific relevance to school nursing, school health and community health care.

This program is designed for the certified school nurse who has a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. Credit will be given (9 credits) for school nurse certification courses taken at Seton Hall University. (School nurse certification not taken at Seton Hall University will be evaluated by the faculty.) The core courses in the Master's program must be taken (12 credits) as well as the courses in school nursing.

In addition to the courses waived and the graduate course the students must take 13 credits specifically designed for the specialization in school nursing.

Post-Master’s Certificate Program

Advanced Practice: Adult Nurse Practitioner/ Gerontological Nurse Practitioner/Women’s Health/ Pediatric Nurse Practitioner/Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

(replaces text on pages 207-208 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

This program is designed to prepare the nurse with a master's degree in nursing to become a nurse practitioner. It is a 28-32 credit (30 credits for those wishing to earn a second master's degree) program that includes didactic and clinical courses. Students gain in-depth knowledge of human development and develop clinical skills necessary for complete health assessment and management of acute illnesses, minor illnesses and stabilized chronic illnesses.

Clinical placements are individualized and congruent with student's interests, education and career goals. Placement is made with certified, experienced advanced nurse practitioners.

Upon completion of the program, graduates are eligible to apply for certification as advanced nurse practitioners. Graduates are also eligible to apply for the American Nurses Association’s Adult, Gerontological Nurse Practitioner Certification, the American Academy of Nurse Practitioner Certification, the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners for the Adult Nurse Practitioner Certification, the Pediatric Nursing Certification Board, the NCC Certification for Women's Health or the Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Exam.

Ph.D. in Nursing Program

Program Director: Wendy Budin, Ph.D., R.N.

The 46-credit, post-masters Ph.D. in nursing curriculum is comprised of core and related course requirements in knowledge development in nursing, research methods, and select cognates. These courses may be taken from within the College of Nursing or from existing course offerings from other schools and colleges within the university with permission of the department chair.

Students will identify a research concentration, which will culminate in a doctoral dissertation focusing on clinical outcomes and evidence-based practice in academic, research, clinical practice, healthcare administration, or policy environments. The primary goal of the Ph.D. in nursing program is to prepare nurse scholars for a lifetime of intellectual inquiry, creative scholarship and research.
Criteria For Admission
The following are required for admission to the Ph.D. in Nursing Program:
- Graduate of an NLN or CCNE accredited Master’s Program in Nursing
- Resume or Curriculum Vitae
- Statement of career goals and research interests
- Two letters of recommendation
- Writing sample
- Official Transcripts from all post-secondary colleges and schools attended, both undergraduate and graduate.
- Official score reports of the Graduate Record Exam (GRE)
- Documentation of nursing licensure and an R.N. within the United States
- TOEFL scores and WES reports for all nurses educated outside the United States and/or educated in a language other than English
- Application fee of $75.00
- Selected Candidates will be invited for a personal interview

Pre-Dissertation Advisement
Students will be assigned to an academic advisor upon admission to the program, based upon the student's area of interest. Once a dissertation committee is selected the chair of the dissertation committee will assume the responsibility of academic advisement.

Dissertation Committee
Students will select dissertation committee members according to their research interests. The dissertation committee will consist of a chairperson and two additional members. One of the additional members will be from the College of Nursing and the third member will be from outside the College of Nursing. One of the committee members should have expertise in the research methods appropriate to the student's dissertation and be able to advise the student in the appropriate methodology. All committee members should have expertise in the selected research topic. With special permission of the Director of the Doctoral Program, the third committee member may be a qualified individual from outside the University.

Ph.D. Candidacy Requirements
Students must qualify for candidacy in the doctoral program through participation in a scholarly dialogue that includes the development and presentation of a comprehensive concept paper to a faculty committee. Students may apply for candidacy when they have completed all core and research courses. Students must qualify for candidacy before they may begin the dissertation process.

Once students have passed dissertation proposal review, they must register for the one-credit dissertation advisement each semester that they are not registered for another 3-credit course until they have passed the final oral defense of dissertation.

Course Requirements
I. All doctoral students will take the following core nursing science courses:

II. Students will select from one of the following quantitative or qualitative research course sequences:

Quantitative Research Sequence:
- NURS 8701 Research Design and Methods of Inquiry in Nursing
- CPSY 7005 Statistical Theory and Computer Application I
- CPSY 7006 Statistical Theory and Computer Application II
- ELMP 8890 Survey Research (or other Method Course)

OR

Qualitative Research Sequence:
- NURS 8701 Research Design and Methods of Inquiry in Nursing
- CPSY 7005 Statistical Theory and Computer Application I
- NURS 8702 Qualitative Research Design
- NURS 8703 Qualitative Research Analysis

III. All students will take the following core dissertation courses:

 Students who have finished coursework but not passed proposal review must attend the one credit doctoral colloquium until successful completion of proposal review.

IV. All students will select cognates related to the focus of their dissertation for a total of 12 credits, based on advisement and department approval.
New Courses and Changes to Course Prerequisites

NURS 6309 Legal/Ethical Issues in School Health
Designed to empower school nurses to take an active role in the political and policy process and to understand children’s rights and the ethical/legal implications involved in working with children. Will increase nurses’ awareness and understanding of the aspects of value-driven policy deliberations, enable them to analyze policy issues, enhance their political knowledge and skills, and to prepare them for leadership roles in shaping policies that affect the school health. The impact of criminal, civil and family proceedings upon children are discussed, the rights of children, the ethical and legal implications, right confidentiality, and current testimony procedures are covered. 2 credits

NURS 7242 Advanced Nursing Practice I - Younger Years
Students acquire theory to initiate, manage and evaluate healthcare regimens for children and adolescents. Prerequisites: NURS 6223 or 6227 and 6228, 7339. 3 credits

NURS 7243 Primary Health Care Theory: Older Years
Students acquire theory to initiate, manage and evaluate primary healthcare regimens for adults and the aged. Prerequisites: NURS 6223 or 6227 and 6228, 7339. 3 credits

NURS 7249 Advanced Primary Healthcare Theory: Women’s Health
This course focuses on providing the knowledge and skills to formulate clinical judgments needed to initiate, manage and evaluate primary healthcare regimens for women during pregnancy and postpartum. Complications of pregnancy and problems of high-risk pregnant women are included. Prerequisites: NURS 7240, 7250. Corequisite: NURS 7451. 3 credits

NURS 7252 Advanced Acute Care Theory
This course focuses on acute care through rehabilitation using a case management approach. The content focuses on acute conditions: cardiovascular, respiratory, GI and renal disease, trauma and neuroendocrine emergencies. Students learn to diagnose and manage patients with acute conditions in collaboration with physicians. Research utilization is incorporated. Family dynamics are included. Special considerations for ethnic minorities and the age range of late adolescents to the elderly are incorporated. Prerequisite: NURS 7250. 3 credits

NURS 7339 Graduate Nursing Practicum I
Students acquire mastery of advanced comprehensive and integrated assessment skills that include bio-psycho-socio-economic, developmental, and functional appraisals of all age groups, with a focus on cultural competence. Specialty assessments are further addressed and refined in the course content. The student is assigned to a clinical setting to practice advanced assessment skills and begin role acculturation. Corequisite: NURS 6223 or 6226; or 6227 and 6228; and 6411. 5 credits

NURS 7343 Graduate Nursing Practicum II: Primary Health Care: Older Years
Opportunity to practice in ambulatory care to build primary healthcare skills in clinical assessment, diagnostic decision making and management of adults or aged who have minor, acute, common, uncomplicated or chronic stabilized illness. Prerequisite: NURS 7339. Corequisite: NURS 7243. 3 credits

NURS 7344 Graduate Nursing Practicum II: Younger Years
Opportunity to practice in selected pediatric sites for the purpose of building clinical appraisal, diagnostic decision making and management skills with children who are healthy or experiencing acute, episodic illness and their families. The one hour per week of clinical seminar provides opportunity for case presentation and advanced nursing practice role analysis. Prerequisite: NURS 7339. Corequisite: NURS 7242. 3 credits

NURS 7348 Graduate Nursing Practicum II: Acute Care
Students will begin to function in the role of ACNP. Students will be involved in team rounds, working with health professionals. Desired experiences are settings where patients have chronic conditions or stabilizing acute conditions. Seminars will focus on case studies relevant to content in Acute Care Theory II. Case management is stressed. Seven clinical hours and 2 hours of seminar/week. Prerequisite: NURS 7339. Corequisite: NURS 7250. 3 credits

NURS 7356 Graduate Nursing Practicum III: Primary Health Care: Older Years
Focus is on continued development of primary healthcare skills. Students continue to provide primary healthcare services to well, acute and chronically ill clients. Prerequisite: NURS 7243, 7343. Corequisite: NURS 7246. 3 credits

NURS 7360 Graduate Nursing Practicum III: Acute Care
This practicum course emphasizes strategies for the ongoing assessment and management of clients. All settings are inner city with multicultural groups. Students will carry a case load of patients with both acute and chronic illnesses in the tertiary care setting, including the critical care areas. New procedures/tests will be performed as per the following approach: (1) observe and assist, (2) perform with assistance and (3) perform with supervision. Seven clinical hours and two hours of seminar per week. Prerequisites: 7250, 7348. Corequisite: NURS 7252. 3 credits

NURS 7363 Graduate Nursing Practicum IV: Primary Health Care: Older Years
Opportunity to integrate, synthesize and demonstrate expert clinical judgment and decision making in the provision of care to adults or aged in a setting of choice. Focus is on leadership and change strategies in a sociopolitical and legal environment. Prerequisites: NURS 7356, 7246. 3 credits
NURS 7369 Graduate Nursing Practicum IV - Acute Care
The focus of this clinical course is on the acute care nurse practitioner's management of critically ill adults and their families from critical illness onset through rehabilitation or resolution. Case management is holistic and incorporates the family, critical care and long term institutions and the community. The application of complex technological care is emphasized and analyzed. This course affords the learner continued opportunity to collaborate with clinical nurse specialists in the care of critically ill adults and their families in healthcare institutions and the community. Prerequisites: NURS 7252, 7360. 3 credits

NURS 7449 Final Role Practicum: Acute Care
The focus on this fifth and final practicum is on solidifying functioning as an acute care nurse practitioner. Students manage a case load of clients under the guidance of faculty and preceptors. Critical thinking and conceptual model integration are incorporated as are current research findings. Corequisite: NURS 7369. 3 credits

NURS 7450 Graduate Nursing Practicum II: Women's Health
Opportunity to gain skills in providing sound, scientifically based primary health care to women. Students participate in the care of women (from adolescence to the advanced years) who are well, have common or minor illnesses, or are experiencing common gynecological disorders. They assess, execute and manage the health/illness care of clients based on analysis of findings from health histories, physical, developmental and behavioral assessments. Prerequisite: NURS 7339. Corequisite: NURS 7240. 3 credits

NURS 7451 Graduate Nursing Practicum III: Women's Health
With faculty guidance and preceptorship supervision, students begin to manage women and uncomplicated pregnancies and actively care for women who are well, have common minor illnesses or are experiencing common gynecological disorders. The opportunity to test and utilize theoretical concepts in primary health care practice and to develop competencies in clinical judgment. Prerequisites: NURS 7240, 7450. Corequisite: NURS 7240. 3 credits

NURS 7452 Graduate Nursing Practicum IV: Primary Health Care of Women
Opportunity to integrate, synthesize and demonstrate expert clinical judgment and decision making in the provision of providing health care to women. Focus is on mastery of skills and leadership strategies. A variety of clinical settings are utilized. Prerequisites: NURS 7249, 7451. 4 credits

NURS 8001 Ethics of Health Care: Organizations, Professions, and Policy
A study of the normative and organizational dimensions of health care ethics. Emphasis on various traditional and contemporary approaches to normative ethics and the way ethical decisions are shaped by culture and structure of organizations and professions. Philosophical ideas and social science theory and data will be brought to bear on professional dilemmas of nursing. 3 credits

NURS 8101 Emerging Nursing Theory
The focus of this course is the development of scholarly inquiry in nursing. Students engage in a systematic analysis and critical evaluation of current nursing theory. Emphasis is placed on the historical development of nursing theory from its inception to the present. The course highlights the relationship between scientific inquiry and the development of knowledge and the practice of nursing. Corequisite: CMHS 7403. 3 credits

NURS 8102 Building Nursing Knowledge: Evidence for Practice
The focus of this course is the critical evaluation of evidence derived from contemporary nursing research from a theoretical and methodological perspective. Selected studies that are representative of different methods of inquiry are carefully critiqued. Students are helped to interrelate findings, identify gaps in knowledge, and explore concepts of their own interest. Emphasizes the extent and nature of potential synthesis of knowledge across traditional boundaries. Prerequisite: NURS 8101. 3 credits

NURS 8103 Special Topics in Health Care
Students will work in guided independent study with a selected faculty mentor and will focus knowledge development in a selected area of practice in teaching, administration, or clinical practice. The course focus will be on interacting as a leader in a multidisciplinary environment and the development of personal leadership skills. Students will evaluate contemporary health care and propose solutions to transform practice settings through effective leadership and teamwork. Prerequisite: NURS 8101. Corequisite: NURS 8102. 2 credits

NURS 8701 Research Design and Methods of Inquiry in Nursing
The principles and methods employed in a variety of qualitative and quantitative research designs used for the development of nursing knowledge are presented and compared. Issues of clinical practice research are discussed. The importance of selecting an appropriate design for an identified research problem is emphasized. Prerequisite: NURS 8102. Corequisite: CPSY 7005. 3 credits

NURS 8702 Qualitative Research Design
The focus of this course is the use of qualitative methods to build knowledge. This is the first of two courses in the qualitative research sequence that are required for students who choose to do a qualitative dissertation. In this course the student develops a simple qualitative study (not the dissertation), and collects data. In the second course the student leaves the field and the focus is on rigorous analysis and writing up the results. In this course the students learn by doing. Students conduct interviews, engage in participant observation, develop field notes, and examine their personal beliefs. Students are guided with support from peers to develop codes, categories and themes. Trustworthiness guides the design, data collection, and analysis. Ethical issues related to qualitative research are discussed. Prerequisite: NURS 8701. 3 credits
NURS 8703 Qualitative Research Analysis
The focus of this course is the completion of the field study begun in NURS 8702 Qualitative Research Design. The student leaves the field and continues the work of deeper analysis. Work becomes increasingly focused and complex. Trustworthiness guides the work of analysis. Students are challenged to reflect and understand the influence of personal beliefs on their interpretations. Students have an opportunity to explore a wide range of ways of reporting findings and writing qualitative reports. At the completion of the course the student has the foundational skills required to do the qualitative dissertation. Prerequisite: NURS 8702. 3 credits

NURS 9901 Doctoral Colloquium
This course integrates scholarship and policy central to the role of nurse scientist, nurse leader, and nurse educator that influence the future of nursing and health care. An emphasis of the course is on the identification of potential topics for dissertation research. Corequisite: NURS 9902. 3 credits

NURS 9902 Dissertation Seminar I
This course consists of a seminar and discussion for doctoral candidates. Students develop the dissertation research proposal with guidance of faculty and input of fellow students. Emphasis is on the refinement of the problem statement, research question(s)/hypothesis, review of the literature and selection and application of appropriate methods. Prerequisite: Candidacy Status, Corequisite: NURS 9901. 2 credits

NURS 9903 Dissertation Seminar II
This course consists of a seminar and discussion for doctoral candidates who have successfully defended their dissertation proposal and are completing their doctoral dissertation. The focus is dealing with issues related to data collection, data management, and critical analysis of findings and conclusions. Discussion of scholarly writing is included as well as opportunities for a "mock" oral defense of final dissertation. Prerequisite: NURS 9902. 3 credits

NURS 9904 Dissertation Advisement
Doctoral students who have advanced to candidacy and completed dissertation seminars I and II must register for dissertation advisement each semester that they are not registered for another 3-credit course until the dissertation is completed and successfully defended. Students are expected to maintain ongoing communication with committee chairperson and committee members about the status of the dissertation. Prerequisite: NURS 9903. 1 credit

Tuition Discount
Ordained clergy and students employed by the Church are eligible for a 50 percent tuition discount. To apply for this discount, the student must submit annually to the associate dean an original letter from his/her Church employer testifying to current and continuing employment by the Church.

Archbishop Peter L. Gerety Fund for Ecclesiastical History
The Archbishop Peter L. Gerety Fund for Ecclesiastical History was established by the former Archbishop of Newark (1974-86) to promote study, research and scholarship in Church history broadly considered. It carries out its mandate in four major ways:

- Gerety Lectures: ICSST sponsors lectures by distinguished guest speakers on subjects of Church history. Past lecturers have included Stephen Carter, Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J., Virgilio Elizondo, John Tracy Ellis, James Fisher, Gerald Fogarty, Philip Gleason, Jan Michael Joncas, Mary Kenny, John O., S.J., Jaroslav Pelikan, Peter Phan, Dermot Quinn, Albert Raboteau, Margaret Reher, and Thomas Shelley.

- Gerety Seminarian Award: An annual prize is given to the Catholic seminarian enrolled at ICSST who completes the best project in Church history in a given year.

- Gerety Book Award: A biennial subvention of $2,000 is provided for the publication of a book, a substantial portion of which deals with the history of the Roman Catholic community in New Jersey. It is expected that the book will reflect the use of the archives of the Archdiocese of Newark and/or other deposits in the archives of Seton Hall University under care of the New Jersey Catholic Historical Records Commission.

- Gerety Research Award: A $300 annual prize is given for the best monograph produced as a result of research in the archives of the Archdiocese of Newark and/or other deposits in the archives of Seton Hall University under care of the New Jersey Catholic Historical Records Commission.

For additional information about these awards, contact Monsignor Robert Wister at (973) 761-9575.

Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry (M.A.P.M.)
(replaces text on pages 216-217 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

The Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry program prepares students for competent leadership in a specialized ministry in the Catholic Church (e.g., youth, catechetical or liturgical). The program strives to provide the student with both a theological education and specialized training in a chosen field of ministerial engagement.
Admission Requirements
In addition to the University's admission requirements for graduate study and the general admission requirements for ICSST programs, M.A.P.M. applicants must:

- submit the results of psychological testing, including the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI), the Rorschach, the Autobiographical Sketch, the Gestalt Test and the Draw-a-Person Test, all taken at a center approved by ICSST; and
- have a personal interview with the director of the lay ministry program.

Note: At least two years of ministerial experience in communicating religious values to others is preferred.

Degree Requirements
The M.A.P.M. program consists of four components: coursework; field education and theological reflection; spiritual formation; and the Integration Seminar/Final Comprehensive Project. These components are divided as follows:

I. Coursework (39 credits)
Students complete coursework according to the distribution below, divided into 30 credits in a core theological curriculum and 12 credits in their area of pastoral specialization. Specific courses are selected in conjunction with the student's academic adviser.

A. Core Theological Curriculum
Students must complete 3 credits in each of the following core areas. The courses listed represent typical choices, not concrete requirements.

B. Concentration Area
Students must earn 12 credits in PTHO courses. The coursework should represent a coherent concentration in a particular area of pastoral ministry and be determined by the student's present and prospective ministerial needs. Areas of concentration currently available include catechetical ministry, youth ministry, spirituality, liturgical ministry, healthcare ministry, great spiritual books and church management.

II. Field Education and Theological Reflection
All M.A.P.M. students must complete the equivalent of six credits of field education in professionally supervised settings approved by ICSST. Students may meet this requirement as follows: (1) by taking part in two, one-semester field education experiences of six to eight hours weekly in a supervised setting; (2) by enrolling in clinical pastoral education; or (3) other means approved by the associate deans.

Concomitantly with field education, students must enroll in a theological reflection group, which normally meets approximately 10 times over the course of an academic year. Registration for the group is made through the associate dean.

III. Spiritual Formation
The formation program has three components. The first is the “Fundational Spiritual Experience.” A cognitive and experiential introduction to the spiritual life, this year-long program is offered annually. The sessions explore movements in the spiritual exercises. Shared liturgy, instruction, faith-sharing and communal prayer are some of the elements. Participants should register in the summer. Participation in the program early in the course of study is encouraged.

The second component of formation is spiritual direction. A list of recommended directors, persons associated in some way with the School who are familiar with the program and its goals, is available from the director of lay ministry, with whom each student will record his/her choice of spiritual director.

The third formation component is a retreat of several days made at some time during the course of studies. A file of area retreat houses and their schedules is maintained in the library. When the retreat has been completed, the student should inform the director of lay ministry.

IV. Integration Seminar and Final Comprehensive Project
All students must enroll in and successfully complete the three credit Integration Seminar (PTHO 9101). Completion of this seminar involves successful preparation of an acceptable final comprehensive project in ministry, attesting to the student's successful integration of theological knowledge and pastoral expertise with its appropriate application to a selected pastoral issue. Copies of the final project will be submitted to the ICSST Library.

New and Revised Course Descriptions

BIBL 6724 Jewish Roots of Christian Spirituality
The Christian faith is rooted in the biblical heritage as experienced by Jewish communities in the Land and in the Diaspora during the first century. The prayer of Jesus and his teachings built upon worship and study in Jewish life. Christian prayer (personal and communal), liturgy (particularly the Eucharist) and celebrations (including sacramental) of the individual's life-cycle draw upon Jewish antecedents, with adaptations made through “inculturation” to the context of the Church's growth. The course will benefit all interested in renewing their understanding of the roots of Christian spirituality as well as those interested in present-day Catholic-Jewish dialogue. (Cross-referenced to PTHO 6724). 3 credits

CETH 6254 The Theology and Spirituality of Marriage and Family Life
See PTHO 6254. 3 credits

CETH 6306 Catholic Sexual Teaching
An historical and systematic study of Church teaching using the scriptures, guest lectures, case studies and film to develop a cognitive and affective appreciation of the Catholic view of human sexuality. The course considers chastity, friendship, spousal love, procreation, natural family planning, extramarital sex, masturbation, homosexuality and birth control. Prerequisites: CETH 6101 and CETH 6205. 3 credits

CETH 6408 Family: Theology and Public Policy
Catholic social thought regards the family as the basic cell of society. A study of Catholic theology of marriage/family and its social implications; application of the Catholic vision of marriage/ family in a pluralistic and democratic society in public policy fora; examines a variety of contemporary public policy issues in which the Catholic understanding of family is implicated (e.g., tax policy, welfare and social benefits policies, immigration, etc.). 3 credits

HSTD 6422 Augustine's Spirituality
An overview of prominent themes in Augustinian spirituality; an examination of Augustine's life and writings, with special attention to Confessions and City of God; an explanation of the institutionalization of Augustinian spirituality in the Church's life and the influence of Augustinian elements in Catholic spirituality, in general. (Cross-referenced to PTHO 6738). 3 credits

HSTD 6710 Women Mystics
An exploration of the phenomenon and meaning of mysticism. A study of the lives, times, and spirituality of such women mystics as Theresa of Avila, Thérèse of Lisieux, Edith Stein, Catherine of Siena, Faustina, Elizabeth of the Trinity and Julian of Norwich. An analysis of their major writings, including autobiographies, letters, and poetry. 3 credits

HSTD 6807 American Christianity
The development of Christianity in the Americas from the beginnings of evangelization to the present, focusing on the Catholic Church in the United States; the impact of the English Reformation as setting the stage for the major cultural forces influencing the present-day United States; growth of the Church in the English colonies and its subsequent expansion, particularly due to 19th and 20th century immigration; Catholic education and the evolution of pastoral ministry; issues facing Catholicism in its contemporary encounter with cultural forces in America today. 3 credits

PTHO 6132 Introduction to The Four Loves: The Core Texts
The course explores fundamental Christian teaching on the spiritual nature of loving relationships by surveying classic philosophical and theological explorations of love. Texts surveyed include the Song of Songs, the Gospel of St. John, St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, passages from Plato and Aristotle, the Letters of Abelard and Eloise, Vladimir Solovyov's The Meaning of Love, Soren Kierkegaard's Diary of a Seducer and Pope Benedict XVI's recent encyclical Deus Caritas Est. PTHO 6871 Principal as Spiritual Leader
An exploration of the role of the principal with a particular focus on the vocation of teaching and leadership. Topics: leadership, the school as an ecclesial system and a community of faith, and the work of formation of faculty, students and programs. 3 credits

PTHO 6942 Pastoral Planning
A review of the process mode of interaction, examining the theory of planning and its application in church settings. A study of specific tools for implementation of a planning process, the role of research, shortcomings of planning, strengths and limitations. 3 credits

PTHO 6943 Strategic Parish Planning
For collaborative parish leaders and/or pastoral teams who want to create with their parishioners a long term plan for transforming the parish into a true community. An examination of different transformational planning processes from which each participant can select and then adapt one or more of the processes for use in a particular parish. A study of how these processes can also be applied by individual parish directors to their particular parish ministry or program(s). 3 credits

STHO 6209 Christology of the Paschal Triduum
An extended examination of the historical development and current expression of the various liturgies of the Paschal Triduum, applying the principle lex orandi, lex credendi, to discover the various Christologies expressed in these rites. 3 credits

STHO 6215 Karl Rahner's Theology
An examination of major themes in Rahner's transcendental theology, starting with his philosophical presuppositions from Geist im Welt and then examining the fundamental axes on which his thought turns: (i) theology is anthropology and (ii) anthropology is Christology. 3 credits

M.S. in Speech-Language Pathology

(replaces text on pages 246-247 of the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue)

The Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology program prepares speech-language clinicians with in-depth knowledge, technical skill, and well-reasoned judgment to advance the art and science of their discipline. The program further prepares graduates to critically analyze and convey information to patients, colleagues and other professionals. The mission of the speech-language pathology program is to prepare clinicians who will provide the highest quality of service to infants, children and adults who have, or are at risk for, debilitating communication and swallowing disorders.

This comprehensive 65-credit, five-semester program includes academic courses and clinical practica in speech-language pathology that are intended not only to provide students with the necessary skills to perform as entry-level practitioners, but also to enable them to grow and adapt to the rapid changes in the profession and the health care service delivery system.

Accreditation

The Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology program received full accreditation for a five year period by the Council on Academic Accreditation (CAA) of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) effective May 1, 2001 through April 30, 2006 and is currently in the process of re-accreditation review. In order for an individual to be eligible to apply for national certification with ASHA, a student must initiate and complete coursework and clinical practicum at a CAA-accredited institution.

Admission

A baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution with a cumulative GPA of no less than 3.0 on a four-point scale is required for all applicants. Admission to the program is open to individuals who have an undergraduate degree in speech-language pathology or who have completed a minimum of 12 credits of pre-professional coursework in communication sciences and disorders with a grade of “B” or better that must include courses in phonetics and an introduction to communication disorders. The Department of Speech-Language Pathology offers the following undergraduate pre-professional courses:

- Introduction to Communication Disorders (3 credits)
- Phonetics (3 credits)
- Anatomy and Physiology of the Speech & Hearing Mechanism (3 credits)
- Introduction to Speech and Hearing Science (3 credits)
- Introduction to Language Development (3 credits)
- Introduction to Audiology (3 credits)

The Committee on Admission determines a candidate’s eligibility upon review of all academic transcripts, Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores within the past five years, a personal statement of professional goals, and three letters of recommendation. A personal interview will be arranged for all applicants being considered for admission.

In accordance with ASHA’s knowledge and skills acquisition (KASA) guidelines, completion of at least one course with a grade of “C” or better in each of the following areas is required for admission:

- English Composition
- Mathematics or Statistics
- Social or Behavioral Science [Typically a course in psychology, sociology, or cultural anthropology]
- Biological or Life Science [Typically a course in biology, general human anatomy, physiology, genetics, or zoology]
- Natural or Physical Science [Typically a course in physics, chemistry, geology, astronomy, or meteorology]

Students with incomplete prerequisites may apply, but a statement of how the prerequisites will be met by the start of the program must be included with the application. Please note that pre-professional coursework cannot be used to fulfill KASA course requirements and that all prerequisite courses must be completed within 10 years of the application date. Information regarding the application process may be obtained from the Department of Speech-Language Pathology at (973) 275-2825 or e-mail gradmeded@shu.edu

New and Revised Courses
For a complete listing of courses, please consult the 2005-2007 Graduate Catalogue.

GMAT 6115 General Medical Conditions
This course will cover general medical conditions commonly seen by the athletic trainer. The focus of this course will be on standard procedures used by physicians and athletic trainers including evaluative and diagnostic procedures as well as appropriate referral for problems involving general medical conditions. During the lab component, students will demonstrate increasing competence in the examination, evaluation and management, prognosis, and intervention skills for general medical conditions in the physically active population. 2 credits

GMSL 6006 Physiologic Phonetics
Comprehensive overview of basic phonetic science; anatomy and physiology of the ventilatory, laryngeal, supralaryngeal, and orofacial mechanisms of speech and voice production with application to clinically relevant issues; review of speech aerodynamics, glottography, and kinematics. 3 credits

GMSL 6008 Development of Language and Cognition
Advanced study of the principles and processes of first language acquisition as it relates to social and cognitive development; syntactic, semantic and pragmatic aspects of language behavior; acquisition of pre-literacy skills from pre-linguistic stages to complex language development in typically developing monolingual and bilingual children; impact of cultural, ethnic, gender, socioeconomic, and individual variation on language acquisition. 2 credits

GMSL 6015 Adult Neuromotor Disorders of Communication
An overview of acquired disorders of speech motor planning, programming and execution in neurologically impaired adolescents, young adults and older populations. Special emphasis will be on the methods of assessment and rehabilitation for apraxias and dysarthrias. 3 credits

GMSL 6018 Diagnostic Principles and Practice
Assessment in communication disorders as a problem-solving process; writing and interpretation of clinical notes and reports; Selection, administration, and analysis of testing materials. 3 credits

GMSL 6020 Biomedical Ethics and Professional Issues in Speech-Language Pathology
Study of the application of human and professional values, judgment, and choices to selected ethical dilemmas that arise in health care practice; scope of practice and code of ethics in speech-language pathology; theories and styles of counseling and interviewing techniques used with communicatively-impaired individuals and their families. 3 credits

GMSL 6141 Neuroscience
The ultimate goal of this course is to promote an understanding of the neural bases of human cognition and communication. This course offers information on the neurons, the organization of neurons into network of structures that serve human sensory and motor systems, and at a higher level of neural organization, how these networks of structures serve the uniquely human mental functions such as cognition, language, and speech. 3 credits

GMSL 6516 Phonological Disorders
Advanced study of current theories related to etiology, evaluation and treatment of articulatory and phonological disorders in the pediatric population. Emphasis is on clinical applications of differential diagnosis and intervention. 2 credits

GMSL 6517 Acoustic and Auditory Phonetics
Concepts and terminology associated with the scientific study of the production, structure, transmission, and perception of the speech signal; acquisition, measurement, and interpretation of physical data; speech and voice acoustics; psychophysical concepts related to the perception of sound and speech. 3 credits

GMSL 6518 Acquired Disorders of Language and Cognition
A review of cognition, language and functional communication in neurologically impaired adults with aphasia, with an emphasis on assessment, treatment, and management. 3 credits

GMSL 6521 Medical Speech Pathology/Dysphagia
Advanced study of the role of the speech-language pathologist in the interdisciplinary management of major medical pathologies including the evaluation and treatment of swallowing disorders. 3 credits

GMSL 6522 Early Intervention
Intensive study of language impairment in the infant-toddler population. Specific topics include federal and state mandates for service provision to infants and toddlers, transdisciplinary play-based assessment and intervention models, prematurity and developmental delay. 3 credits

GMSL 6523 Fluency Disorders
Advanced study of the nature and etiology of stuttering and other fluency disorders. Methodologies of assessment and intervention for pediatric and adult populations are emphasized. 3 credits
GMSL 6524 Developmental Neuromotor Disorders/Augmentative and Alternative Communication
Assessment, treatment, and management of infants and children with speech motor disorders; intensive study of the interdisciplinary approach to augmentative and alternative communication; team approach to designing appropriate treatment plans, neuromotor management, environmental control, computer access and funding support. 3 credits

GMSL 6525 Voice Disorders
Intensive review of the anatomy and physiology of the vocal mechanism; normal and abnormal ventilatory and laryngeal function; identification, assessment, diagnosis, and outcome-based management of patients with functional, neurogenic, and organic voice disorders. 3 credits

GMSL 6526 Audiology for Speech-Language Pathology
Audiologic testing and interpretation; normal and abnormal hearing processes; appropriate treatment and referral. 2 credits

GMSL 6527 Child Language Disorders
This course focuses on pediatric language delays and disorders from a developmental perspective and within theoretical models of language impairment; in-depth study of individual populations with language impairments; assessment and intervention of children with language impairments. 3 credits

GMSL 6528 Topics in Speech-Language Pathology
Contemporary topics in the field of communication disorders; national certification and state licensure/teacher certification requirements, changing health care practices, and the provision of speech-language pathology services. 3 credits

GMSL 7010 Traumatic Brain Injury
An overview of cognitive and communicative consequences of traumatic brain injury in adults and children, with special reference to evaluation and management. 3 credits

GMSL 7012 Aural Rehabilitation
Communication assessment and management of children and adults with hearing loss. Specific content areas emphasized include individualized rehabilitation plans, family education, collaborative team models, assessment and intervention. 3 credits

GMSL 7013 Craniofacial Disorders
Study of the evaluation and treatment of speech and language problems associated with cleft palate and other craniofacial disorders. 3 credits

GMSL 7032-7036 Clinical Practicum/Clinical Seminar
Supervised clinical practicum in speech-language pathology with associated clinical seminar. 1 credit each

GMSL 7501 Research Methods
Introduction to the study of communication sciences and disorders and the role of outcome-based measures in clinical research. Included is an overview of basic concepts and terminology, with emphasis on developing the ability to form a reasonable critical assessment of published literature and to write and edit technical papers and research reports. 3 credits

GMSL 7502 Independent Study in Communication Sciences and Disorders
Faculty-supervised research review or pilot project focusing on a single area within Speech-Language Pathology or Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences. 2 credits

GMSL 7504 MS Thesis in Communication Sciences and Disorders
Faculty-supervised independent research on a single area within Speech-Language Pathology or Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences. 1 credit
Master of Science in Jurisprudence in Health, Science and Technology at Seton Hall University School of Law

Master of Science in Jurisprudence in Health, Science and Technology

Seton Hall Law School offers a Master of Science in Jurisprudence (M.S.J.) in Health, Science and Technology. The M.S.J. program provides professionals working in health care, information technology, telecommunications, pharmaceuticals and biotechnology with a solid foundation in the legal and regulatory aspects of these industries.

The M.S.J. degree is an extension of the Law School’s nationally ranked Health Law & Policy Program (HeLPP), and the Institute of Law, Science & Technology (ILST). Recently, more than ever before, the legal profession and the health, science and technology industries have become inextricably intertwined. Frequently, professionals in health, science and technology feel as if they need a lawyer in order to competently and efficiently perform their jobs. The M.S.J. degree provides these professionals with a solid foundation in legal aspects of their respective industries so that they have a better understanding of the laws that impact their professional responsibilities.

Armed with this knowledge, professionals working in the health care, information technology, telecommunications, pharmaceutical, biotechnology and related industries will perform their jobs with much less frustration and confusion, and with more confidence and reliability. Courses are conveniently scheduled to accommodate working students. The Law School is conveniently located one block west of Newark Penn Station.

Student Commitment

The SetonWorldWide (SWW) programs have been designed for working professionals who can most benefit from “anytime, anywhere” education. Acknowledging that these students are particularly able to integrate what has already been learned in their careers and demonstrate to others these enhanced capabilities, SWW recognizes that as learning team members, they, along with the faculty and members of the instructional teams, are interrelated and interdependent. These relationships are key to a rich and dynamic online learning experience and each student is a vital link in the overall success of that experience.

Current Online Degree Programs

- Master of Arts in Counseling/ Ed.S. in Mental Health Counseling
- Master of Arts in School Counseling / Ed.S. in Mental Health Counseling
- Master of Arts in Strategic Communication and Leadership
- Master of Healthcare Administration
- Master of Arts in Education Leadership, Management and Policy
- Master of Science in Nursing (Nurse Practitioner Program and Health Systems Administration Program)
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing for Registered Nurses (Nursing program courses are offered online. See undergraduate catalogue.)

Tuition

Tuition includes all fees (except for the application fee), and room and board for the three residency weekends (note the residency period for the Counseling program). Travel expenses, books and materials, computer equipment, software and student ISP costs are not included. A deposit of $500 is required on admission to the program. This NONREFUNDABLE deposit guarantees space in the program, and is credited towards the total cost of the program. Financial aid payment plans are available for students interested in paying their tuition on a monthly basis. Students must file the FAFSA on the Web as a first step in applying for a Stafford Loan. Complete tuition and financial aid information can be found on the SetonWorldWide Web site at www.setonworldwide.net

Master of Arts in Counseling/Ed.S. Degree

Master of Arts in School Counseling/Ed.S. Degree

Academic Director: John E. Smith, Ed.D.

SetonWorldWide offers two online degrees in Counseling: a 48-credit Masters Degree in Counseling and a 48-credit Masters Degree in School Counseling. Students also have the option of completing an additional 12-credits online and receive the Ed.S. (Educational Specialist Degree). The mission of the Master of Arts in Counseling is to provide the student with a comprehensive background and preparation in counseling a wide variety of client populations, while the MA in School Counseling prepares students to work in K-12 school settings. The program is offered by the Department of Professional Psychology and Family Therapy in the College of Education and Human Services, and is designed to meet the standards set forth by CACREP (Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs) and to meet the licensing requirements set by the Professional Counselor Examiners Committee and the National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC). The Masters in School Counseling is approved by the New Jersey Department of Education.

Residency Requirement

The Online Master of Arts in Counseling and School Counseling programs require students to attend two 4-day on-campus residencies, with the first residency held at the beginning of the program, and the second residency taking place the second year of the program.

Admissions Requirements

Admission is based on the following:

• B.A. or equivalent;
• GRE, MAT, or TOEFL scores within the past five years.

  This requirement may be waived;
• an official sealed transcript from each college and/or university attended;
• current resume;
• three letters of recommendation

University Buildings

Alfieri Hall. Alfieri Hall, completed in 1984, contains classrooms for the School of Theology, offices of the Educational Opportunity Program, and the Computer Training Center. The Department of Speech-Language Pathology is located on the lower level.

Alumni Hall. Alumni Hall was planned as a 25th anniversary gift to commemorate the opening of Seton Hall College in Madison in 1856. The needed funds were not raised in 1881, but the fund drive continued, and the building was dedicated in 1886 to commemorate the opening and first graduation in South Orange in 1861. Alumni Hall houses the chapel for Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology as well as the School's administrative offices.

Art Center. Originally a carriage house, built between 1890 and 1895, and now a registered national landmark, this red-brick Victorian building has been preserved and renovated and was officially dedicated in May 1974 as the University's Art Center. It houses an art gallery, studios, classrooms and offices of the Department of Art and Music.

Arts and Sciences Hall. Opened in 1973, the building houses the Ruth Sharkey Academic Resource Center, lecture halls, seminar rooms, conference rooms, classrooms, offices for College of Arts and Sciences faculty and administrative personnel, and a computer laboratory.

Bayley Hall. Erected in 1913 and named for Bishop James Roosevelt Bayley, first Bishop of Newark and nephew of Elizabeth Seton, Bayley Hall is used for business and administrative purposes, and houses Enrollment Services.

Bishop Dougherty University Center. Named for Bishop John J. Dougherty, president of Seton Hall from 1960-70, the University Center contains meeting rooms, dining areas, lounges, an art gallery and Theatre-in-the-Round. It houses the offices of student publications and student government, as well as the Department of Community Development and the office of the vice president for Student Affairs and Enrollment Services.

Chapel of the Immaculate Conception. The Chapel of the Immaculate Conception has been the center of campus religious life since 1863 and observed its 125th anniversary in 1988-89. Open every day, the chapel serves as a place of meditation and prayer for all members of the University community. Several Masses are offered on weekdays and on Sundays.

Corrigan Hall. Named after Bishop Michael A. Corrigan and Reverend James H. Corrigan, brothers who served as second and third presidents of Seton Hall, this building contains offices, the facilities for Computing Services, classrooms and labs.

Duffy Hall. Classrooms, offices, the bookstore, Parking, Campus ID, Disability Support Services, and the Department of Housing and Residence Life, and the Science Departments (temporarily) are located in this building.

Fahy Hall. Opened in 1968, this building houses many departments of the College of Arts and Sciences, as well as the dean of this College. In addition to classrooms and faculty offices, it contains communication and language laboratories, and a television studio.

Jubilee Hall. With six stories and more than 126,000 square feet of academic space, this structure provides a home for the Stillman School of Business, the College of Education and Human Services, the New Jersey Center for Civic and Law-Related Education and the Departments of Political Science, Psychology, Public and Healthcare Administration and Sociology and Anthropology. It contains 156 faculty and administrative offices and 30 teaching spaces, from seminar rooms that seat eight people to an auditorium seating 390. It also features a central, three-story skylit atrium where students and faculty can congregate informally. A major feature of the building is the technological capabilities it brings to the teaching and learning processes. These include fixed and flexible seating classrooms with the most contemporary information and distance-learning technologies that facilitate the transmission of lectures all over the world; laboratories with one-way observation mirrors; and classrooms with terminals for portable computers.

Lewis Hall/Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology. Lewis Hall/Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology was completed in 1984. Faculty and student residences, classrooms, a dining hall, lounges and the Seminary Library are housed in this building.

Marshall Hall. Built in the 1890s under the direction of Reverend William Marshall, this three-story building is situated to the east side of Presidents Hall. The building's main level contains a newly restored Regents Suite and Regents Board Room. Marshall Hall connects via a gallery passage and a stair tower with marble treads and wrought-iron railing serves the second floor level. The upper level links to Mooney Hall by means of a flying bridge.

McNulty Hall. The biology, chemistry and biochemistry, and physics departments are located in McNulty Hall, named in honor of Monsignor John Laurence McNulty, president during the University’s post-World War II expansion years. This building contains classrooms, teaching and research facilities, faculty offices and an amphitheater.

Starting in May 2005, this building will be redesigned and expanded by approximately 30,000 square feet. This process will occur during the 2005-06 and 2006-07 academic years. During this time, all teaching laboratories will take place in the existing building. However, lectures will not take place in McNulty Hall. The main offices for biology, chemistry and biochemistry, health professions, laboratory services/chemical hygiene and physics have been moved to the following temporary locations:

Department of Biology: Mooney Hall, 3rd Floor, Room 324, Phone: (973) 761-9044; Fax (973) 761-9096.

Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, Duffy Hall, 3rd Floor, Room 82, Phone: (973) 761-9414; Fax: (973) 761-9772.

Health Professions: Mooney Hall, 3rd Floor, Room 319, Phone: (973) 761-9487; Fax: (973) 761-9096.

Laboratory Services/Chemical Hygiene Office, McNulty Hall, 2nd Floor, Room 218, Phone: (973) 761-9039; Fax: (973) 313-6396.
Department of Physics: Mooney Hall, 3rd Floor, Room 319, Phone: (973) 761-9050; Fax: (973) 761-9096.

For additional information about the redesign of McNulty Hall and construction schedule, contact John Sowa, Ph.D., (973) 424-7515 or e-mail sowajohn@shu.edu.

McQuaid Hall. Named after Bishop Bernard McQuaid, first president of Seton Hall, this building was constructed in the early 1900s. The Whitehead School of Diplomacy and International Relations is located on a major section of the first floor of this building. The School of Graduate Medical Education is located on the second floor and part of the first floor.

Mooney Hall. Named for Monsignor James Mooney, president of Seton Hall from 1907-22, the building houses Freshman Studies, Archaeology Studies, ROTC/Military Science, Science Departments (temporarily), Special Academic Services, Counseling Services, the Print Shop, classrooms and offices.

Presidents Hall. Visually the “centerpiece” of campus, Presidents Hall dates back to 1867. It houses administrative offices, including those of the president; executive vice president; general counsel, planning, the provost; and human resources.

Residence Halls. Seton Hall has housing capacity for approximately 2,100 students. The residence halls include Cabrini, Neumann, Serra, Xavier, Aquinas, and North and South Boland halls. Ora Manor Apartments, Turrell Manor and St. Andrew’s Hall provide University housing off campus.

Ring Building. Located at 457 Centre Street, this building houses the Division of University Advancement, including the vice president’s office and the departments of Alumni Relations, Public Relations and Marketing, and Development.

Schwartz College of Nursing Building. This facility was opened in 1973 and named for the first dean of the College of Nursing, Caroline Di Donato Schwartz, whose husband, Henry Schwartz, was the major benefactor who supplemented a U.S. Public Health Service Building grant for its completion. This building includes a state-of-the-art computer laboratory, patient care simulation laboratory, classrooms, an amphitheater, and offices for faculty and administration.

Seton Hall Law School Building. Seton Hall Law School opened its doors to its first class on the old site of John Marshall Law School, located at 40 Journal Square, Jersey City, in 1951. Twenty years later, in 1971, the School relocated to 1111 Raymond Boulevard, Newark. Outgrowing its space, the Law School moved to its current location at One Newark Center, Newark, in 1992. The Law School entrance leads to a striking, five-story, glass-encased atrium. Offices, classrooms, a moot courtroom and library are interconnected by balconies overlooking the atrium. The School’s location, just one block from Newark Penn Station, allows easy access to Manhattan and other destinations.

Richie Regan Recreation and Athletic Center and Walsh Gymnasium. A student-oriented, multipurpose facility that serves the recreation, physical education and intercollegiate needs of the University community, the Richie Regan Recreation and Athletic Center contains the Richard and Sheila Regan Field House, an eight-lane, 25-yard pool, a fitness/weight training room, a dance studio, racquetball courts, saunas and locker rooms. Adjacent to the Richie Regan Recreation and Athletic Center, is Walsh Gymnasium, a 2,000-seat arena built in 1939 and named for Newark Arch-bishop Thomas Walsh. Walsh Gymnasium is the site of practice and competition for many intercollegiate teams. The state-of-the-art WSOU-FM facility also is located here. Outdoor facilities include Owen T. Carroll Field and Ivy Hill Park, 19 acres of practice and intramural fields adjacent to the campus.

Walsh Library. Seton Hall’s Walsh Library was completed in spring 1994. Located opposite the Richie Regan Recreation and Athletic Center, the four-story, 155,000 square-foot structure is nearly three times the size of its predecessor, McLaughlin Library, and accommodates twice as many users at any given time. The library is named in honor of Board of Regents chairman and University benefactor Frank E. Walsh and his wife, Mary D. Walsh.

Walsh Library facilities include a Bibliographic Instruction Center with a networked computer laboratory; quiet, convenient reading rooms, group study rooms, study carrels and scholar’s studies; compact shelving and a flexible floor plan; state-of-the-art systems to protect, preserve and provide access to valuable resources; an exhibit and art gallery; the Valente Italian Studies Library; the Alberto Italian Studies Institute; and a central location for all library services, including the Special Collections Center, Teaching, Learning and Technology Center, Digital Media Services, Walsh Library Gallery, University Archives and the Writing Center.
