

Dan Barney Memorial Award Application

Midwest students and alumni established the Dan Barney Memorial Award in honor of the devoted admissions director Maureen Barney and her husband Dan. Maureen's constant service and dedication to creating a home away from home for hundreds of Midwest students has provided the support necessary for her students to be successful at Seton Hall. The annual award given to an incoming freshman from the Midwest and is intended to honor his or her contributions of service and leadership to his/her own community in addition to encouraging and continuing to display such servant leadership as he/she becomes a part of the Seton Hall University community. To qualify, students must file a FAFSA application and meet the following eligibility requirements.

Eligibility:

1. Students must be entering Seton Hall University as first-time freshmen. A completed application for admission, including an official high school transcript, official standardized test scores, essay, recommendations and counselor evaluation must be on file at Seton Hall University
2. Students have permanent home address in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, North Dakota or South Dakota.
3. Students must have an un-weighted cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
4. Students must have a minimum SAT score of 1650 (3 sections) or an ACT of 23.
5. A one-page typed essay which defines and discusses the student's philosophy of service and implementation of such a philosophy in his or her own life.
6. A resume that reflects the student's realization of his or her philosophy of service (may include service projects, leadership positions, jobs, etc.).

The Dan Barney Memorial Award may be used towards any direct expenses payable to Seton Hall University (tuition, fees, room, and board) and may be combined with other awards. This is a one-time award intended to provide a stipend to assist with the first year costs at Seton Hall University. Award amount is $1,000.
