Through a special gift, the Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute at Seton Hall University is able to provide financial aid to selected students who show an appreciation of Latino/Hispanic culture, history, and/or community life. This award is available to undergraduate sophomores, juniors, and seniors currently enrolled at Seton Hall. Awarded students are not eligible to reapply within one academic year.

Eligibility
To qualify for consideration, students must meet the following criteria:

• Must be currently enrolled as a full time undergraduate at Seton Hall University
• Must show an appreciation of Latino/Hispanic culture, history, and/or community life.
• Must be a sophomore or above to apply
• Must have a minimum of 3.3 cumulative GPA

Requisite
Submit a 2-page essay describing a service project that candidate would work on over the course of the academic year upon selection.

Selection
This award will be given to selected students based on academic performance, involvement in the Seton Hall community and financial need. Award notification will be sent to all applicants 4-6 weeks after the application deadline. Award funds will only be credited to the student’s bursar account.

• $3,000.00 will be awarded to the students who show a commitment to engaging in the Latino community and who will work on a community project for one academic year with our on-campus partners, DOVE and/or Habitat For Humanity.
• $2,500 will be for tuition relief and $500 will be for project expenses.

Instructions
Please complete the application form and return it to the Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute (Fahy 246) no later than May 15 for each academic year award. Late applications will not be considered.
