Seton Hall University and Sophia University in Tokyo have exchanged students for the past 30 years as part of our SHU agreement to broaden and deepen the understanding between the two countries. The exchange program with Sophia University introduces students to a broad range of issues in Japan and Asia, leading to a greater understanding between Japanese society and people of other nations. Students are given the chance to meet Japanese people and learn firsthand about their language, society, economy, business, culture, religion, history, and literatures. The program includes numerous field trips at weekends and visits major historical sites in Japan.

Program Costs to Student in Addition to SHU Tuition:

SHU tuition will be discounted at 25%
