

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY
2013-2014 Unusual Enrollment History Form

After completion of your 2013 – 2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the U.S. Department of Education has indicated that you may have an “Unusual Enrollment History” with regard to the receipt of Federal Pell Grant funds at multiple education institutions during the past three academic years. Using information obtained from the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) as well as your transcripts, Seton Hall University is required to determine if academic credit was earned during the award year Pell Grant funds were received.
