

CHARTER WEEK

SATURDAY, MARCH 10

Celebrating Seton Hall and South Orange Community

South Orange and Global Citizens: Preserving Personal and Community History. This one-day program in the New Jersey Makers Series starting at 11:00 a.m. is dedicated to learning the finer points of preserving and celebrating family and local history. This event is co-sponsored by the South Orange Public Library, South Orange Historical Preservation Society, and Seton Hall University. Location: South Orange Public Library 65 Scotland Road, South Orange. For more information contact Ms. Melissa Kopecky, Library Director at mkopecky@sopl.org

MONDAY, MARCH 12

Walking Tour

This tour will provide some historical insights into the buildings and structures that make up the South Orange campus. The tour is organized to follow the chronological development of the South Orange campus over time. The tour is about 45 minutes long. All participants of the tour will receive Charter Day memorabilia. Please contact Dr. Bryan Meadows at bryan.meadows@shu.edu for more information and to schedule a tour.

Seton Hall – A History Through Images & Music

Stop by the Chancellor's Suite, located on the lower level of the University Center, to catch a glimpse (or view the entire production) of an original Seton Hall history captured in a short film. The movie will run continuously between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Snacks will be served. For more information, please contact Professor Katie Wissel at Katie.Wissel@shu.edu

TUESDAY, MARCH 13

Employee Service Awards

The Employee Service Awards will take place in Bethany Hall at 1:00 p.m. Seton Hall is recognizing those who have reached the 10-year milestone and higher in increments of 5 years – 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, etc. Invitations have been mailed for those who will receive an award pin and certificate. Light refreshments will be served.

Blessing of our newly commissioned statue of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Please join us at 3:00 p.m. in the lobby of Bethany Hall for the blessing of the new statue of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton.

Birthday Cake

To commemorate the University's Charter Day Celebration, birthday cake will be served. This will take place in Bethany Hall, immediately following the blessing of the statue.

Movie Presentation "Pirates of the Airwaves – The WSOU Story"

Join us for a 90 minute feature film on the history of WSOU-FM in honor of the 70th anniversary of the station and "Pirate Radio" on campus. Producer Mr. Rob Longo will offer an introduction and commentary on what went into the making of the production, which was a self-funded passion project. This will take place at 5:00 p.m. in the Beck Rooms. Snacks will be served. For more information contact Professor Katie Wissel at Katie.Wissel@shu.edu

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14

Walking Tour

This tour will provide some historical insights into the buildings and structures that make up the South Orange campus. The tour is organized to follow the chronological development of the South Orange campus over time. The tour is about 45 minutes long. All participants of the tour will receive Charter Day memorabilia. Please contact Dr. Bryan Meadows at bryan.meadows@shu.edu for more information and to schedule a tour.

The Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute and Catholic Studies

The Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute and Catholic Studies are supporting Seton Hall University's Charter Day Celebration with a Luncheon, Spanish Mass and Lecture by Reverend Augustus C. Puleo, M.Div., Ph.D.

12:30 p.m. Luncheon with Fr. Augustus "Gus" Puleo, University Center - Chancellor's Suite

- RSVP Required for Luncheon Only by March 12. For questions and to RSVP, please contact Ms. Jacquelyn Coletta at: colettja@shu.edu or call (973) 761-9422

3:00 p.m. Spanish Mass
Immaculate Conception Chapel

5:00 p.m. Lecture - Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe (Our Lady of Guadalupe)
Chancellor's Suite
University Center

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe: Transcending Borders

In this special lecture, Reverend Augustus "Gus" Puleo, an expert on Mariology from the Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Pennsylvania, will address how

Our Lady of Guadalupe is at the forefront of the immigration debate in our country. Through her apparition and love for her children, Our Lady of Guadalupe provides a unique lens by which we can understand more fully how immigrants, and those residing in the United States, can live together in peace, as we are all her children. The talk will explore how her appearance, based on the actual historical events of the apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico, endures as a valuable and divine lesson in our lives today.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15

Historical Symposium – Seton Hall, An Introduction to University History

A Historical Symposium featuring faculty who will share their research and work on various aspects of University History. The panel will feature authors Dr. Dermot Quinn who will provide an overview of the 160+ years of Setonia; Monsignor Robert Wister, expert on the history of Immaculate Conception Seminary, and Dr. Alan Delozier who will discuss the development of Athletics on campus. This event will be held from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge, University Center and also for view via videocast. Lunch will be served. Please RSVP by Monday, March 12 at: <https://events.shu.edu/event/historical-symposium--seton-hall-an-introduction-to-university-history/>

The Charter Day Program

Charter Day celebrates the founding of Seton Hall in 1856 and the granting of our charter by the New Jersey State legislature in 1861. It is a special annual opportunity to reflect on our history and purpose, and our Catholic identity and mission. The main program will take place at 3:00 p.m. in Bethany Hall. The afternoon's commemoration will include the presentation of the Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid Medal for Distinguished Service, awarded annually to a long-serving employee for distinguished service and commitment to the University's mission. Also included will be the President's Award for Student Service and the Servant Leader Scholars.

SHUFFLE Concert

The SHUFFLE Concert will take place at SOPAC at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $7.00 (plus service charge) for SHU employees, $14 (plus service charge) for Seton Hall Alumni and free for students. The SHUFFLE Concert is sponsored by the Arts Council, under the College of Communication and the Arts. Musicians of SHUFFLE, an inspiring and energetic, New York based chamber music ensemble perform as part of this season's Classical Concert Series.

DAILY EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 12-16

Daily Seton Hall Trivia Contest

Each day three questions will be sent to the University Community. The top three winners, who will be picked randomly, will win a prize.

Food Drive

Please consider participating in our food drive. We are looking for donations of non-perishable food, which will be given to the local community. There will be drop-off boxes in each of the residence halls. For more information, please contact Dominic Thompson at dominic.thompson@student.shu.edu.

Special Feature Article in the Setonian

The weekly print voice of the student community, The Setonian, will feature information on Charter Week with a preview article in the edition before March 12th, and an extended spread that will feature various articles that capture the spirit of the event from an introduction to the writings of Mother Seton to modern perspectives surrounding the celebration.

Library Windows

Stop by Walsh Library to see Seton Hall's history depicted in the window display. The theme for this year is the 50th anniversary of Co-Education on campus this year. For more information, contact Dr. Alan Delozier at Alan.Delozier@shu.edu

Discounts at Participating Local Shops

The merchants of South Orange would like to wish Seton Hall University a Happy Charter Day and as such, will be offering discounts to the Seton Hall Community. Local Store Discounts Include:

- The South Orange Frame Shop on Sloan Street - the owner Chris Bobbins offers a 20% discount for any items ordered the entire Charter week.
- Rocket Ship and Print store on South Orange Avenue will offer a 10% discount on all purchases (except postal services) for the entire Charter week.
- The Leather Shop - Shoe Repair on South Orange Avenue will offer a 10% discount on all shoe repairs and purchases on Charter Day (March 15).
- Pirates Pizza on South Orange Avenue will offer a 15% discount on all orders and deliveries on Charter Day (March 15).
- SOPAC - A Shuffle Concert performance on Charter Day (March 15). Tickets are $7.00 (plus service charge) for SHU employees, $14 (plus service charge) for Seton Hall Alumni and free for students.
- Cold Stone Creamery on Sloan Street will offer a 15% discount on all orders on Charter Day (March 15).
- Stony's on Sloan Street will offer a 25% discount every day of Charter Week except Wednesday after 8PM.
- BGR on South Orange Ave will offer a 10% discount all day every day, and 20% off from 10PM to 12AM Thursday to Saturday of Charter Week.