

Great Minds Learning Experience 2019

2. Catholic Mission

Do you want to learn more about the history of the Catholic Mission of Seton Hall University including Elizabeth Ann Seton, James Roosevelt Bayley, Msgr. John Oesterreicher and present students?

Do you want to know the various entities at Seton Hall directly concerned with the Catholic Mission of Seton Hall, such as Campus Ministry, Catholic Studies, Theology, Religious Studies, DOVE, University Core, the Center for Catholic Studies, the Center for Vocation and Servant Leadership, Focus, St. Paul's Outreach, the Knights of Columbus?

This broadening experience and viewpoint is perfect for you regardless of your background and faith tradition.

This Great Minds Learning Experience may be right for you.

Especially Designed for: All students, especially students studying the natural and human sciences, the humanities and the professional school students.

Who is Eligible: Open to all currently enrolled students and incoming students that have deposited and completed Pirate Adventure. Enrollment limited to 20 students.

When: Sunday, August 18, 2019 to Thursday, August 22, 2019

Deadline to Express Interest: To express interest, students must sign up through this web link www.shu.edu/greatminds2019 no later than June 1, 2019. Accepted students will be notified by email no later than June 30, 2019.

Earned Credential: A certificate of completion will be offered.

Fees: Seton Hall University offers this Great Minds Learning Experience without charge to students. Meals not included.

For More Information: Go to www.shu.edu/greatminds2019

Students who are enrolled in this Great Minds Learning Experience and who also are residing in the Seton Hall residence halls for the fall 2019 semester will be able to move into their rooms on Sunday, August 18, 2019. However, meal plans will not be in effect and students will have to pay for their own meals.

What great minds can do.