Seton Hall University College of Nursing is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation P196-9/17-20. 5.75 Contact Hours will be awarded. Planners, content experts and speakers have declared no conflict of interest. There is no commercial support for this activity. To successfully earn a contact hour certificate, participants must stay for the entire program. Certificates will be disbursed at the end of the conference upon submission of the evaluation form.

This workshop will provide nurse educators in pre-licensure nursing programs with a comprehensive framework for teaching clinical judgment across the curriculum and with the opportunity to apply content learned in group work.

The sessions will explore:

- The Next Generation NCLEX and rationale for its focus on clinical judgment.
- A comprehensive framework for clinical and classroom instruction for successful teaching of clinical judgment.
- New approaches to teaching and evaluating clinical judgment in pre-licensure nursing programs.

About Linda Caputi, MSN, EdD, CNE, ANEF, Workshop Facilitator. An award-winning nurse educator who has consulted and presented over the past 20 years on strategic approaches to teaching nursing students to think like a nurse. The Caputi Model for Teaching Thinking in Nursing can help to pass the Next Generation NCLEX—now focused on clinical judgment.
