Dearest Julian, Congratulations and best wishes! Hooray to all your achievements. You made us truly proud! We thank you, for letting us feel the joy of being a parent who fulfilled their responsibility in laying enabling foundations for your future. As the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt said, "We may not be able to prepare the future for our children, but we can at least prepare our children for the future." No one knows what the future holds. We can only wish a much better and successful one for you. Now that the future is opening up several doors, we hope and pray that the academic, social and spiritual foundations we have laid down guides you towards the direction of the life you have dreamed of and that you will tread wisely, ears in your heart as you begin your journey in weaving the coming chapters of your life's adventure. Remember that your Mama and Papa will always be by your side through-out your journey watching every steps you take. Rain or shine we will be there whenever you need a hand.

Dear Graduate

We were not able to travel from Uganda for your graduation, but we thank God Who has shepherded you all your life to this day (Genesis 48:15). We remember your late father Godwin Kihuguru and how much he desired for you to grow up to be a young man who would excel in life with the love and fear of God. We thank your uncle Ben and aunt Clare who without their support it would have been impossible to attend SHU, as well as support from your uncle Noel and aunt Ruth - family that is all there in New Jersey. We thank your grandparents Aston and Enid Manyindo, as well as George and Joyce Kihuguru, and even your step-grandmother Nancy Ssewandyaka, who all prayed for you every single day and supported you these past 4 years. We thank your uncles and aunts who co-sponsored your studies at SHU, and those who encouraged you whenever they could through visits or text messages. Last, but not least, we thank all your spiritual mothers and fathers in the church life in many localities, but especially those in the church in Nutley who have shepherded you throughout these past 4 years. Thank you for being a role model not only to your siblings and cousins, but also to the young students you tutored and mentored at MLKSA and Upward Bound. What a joy to have our firstborn graduate college! Thank you, Seton Hall University!
