EDUCATION IN JEWISH-CHRISTIAN STUDIES

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE

The goal of the Jewish-Christian Studies Program at Seton Hall University is to build appreciation, understanding and cooperation among Christians, Jews and people of other religious traditions. Through the program, matriculating and non-matriculating students have an opportunity to better understand the importance of religious diversity in a dynamic society. The coursework can lead to a Master of Arts or a graduate certificate.

Graduate Program of Jewish-Christian Studies

MASTER OF ARTS

Within the College of Arts and Sciences, a comprehensive curriculum in Jewish-Christian studies can lead to a Master of Arts degree. Courses explore the biblical-traditional sources and the relationship between Jews and Christians through the ages, providing a critical analysis of the values and resources deriving from each in historical and cultural perspectives.

The program helps its students explore lessons of lasting social significance, countering the destructive power of prejudice, anti-Semitism, ethnocentrism and bigotry born of ignorance. It promotes personal and societal benefits of mutual cooperation through understanding.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

A certificate in Jewish-Christian studies is available for those taking four courses (12 credits) in the program. These courses can assist those education professionals in elementary, middle and secondary schools responsible for implementing the New Jersey Mandate for Holocaust and Genocide Education. They include:

JCST 6001: Christian-Jewish Encounter*

JCST 6014: Lessons from the Holocaust:
Trauma and Resilience

JCST 6017: Jewish-Christian Foundations
for Social Service Learning

JCST 6021: Modern Jewish History
(Jewish History II)

* Required course for all Certificate students

TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Sister Rose Thering Fund for Education in Jewish-Christian Studies

Established in 1993 to honor Sr. Rose Thering, O.P., Ph.D., the Fund provides scholarships for K-12 teachers in public, private and religious schools so they can gain a graduate education in Jewish-Christian Studies at Seton Hall University. The fund carries out the State of New Jersey Mandate for Holocaust and Genocide Education and responds to the call by Saint John Paul II to teach about the Shoah so it may never be forgotten.

HOW TO APPLY

Students seeking financial assistance from the Sister Rose Thering Fund may register for one course per semester and may take up to 12 credits on a non-matriculated basis, receiving a Certificate on completion of these credits. Full scholarships are available for qualified applicants.

Scholarship assistance for matriculating students in the Masters Program is available through the Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies. Call (973) 761-9751 for application details.

Note: Scholarship recipients are responsible to pay the University fee and technology fee, due upon notification of the scholarship award. Fees are sent directly to the Bursar's office.
