Professor Donald E. Blumenfeld, Ph.D.

Course Description: This course will provide Old Testament insight into the progressive revelation of Divine Presence and Fidelity. Students will have the opportunity to study the creation stories; the Exodus event; the sagas; Divine forgiveness and faithfulness as well as the call to holiness and its particular and universal aspects.

Reverend Donald E. Blumenfeld, Ph.D., Director of Pastoral Formation, Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology, was a member of the first class ordained to the priesthood by Pope John Paul II in Rome in 1979. Father Blumenfeld served as Campus Minister at Ramapo College and as Chaplain at Union Catholic High School. He also has been an Adjunct Professor of Religious Studies at Seton Hall University and Felician College. He earned a B.A. in Classical Languages from Seton Hall University, an S.T.B. from the Gregorian University, an M.A. in Judaeo-Christian Studies from Seton Hall and a Ph.D. in Theological Studies from the Graduate Theological Foundation. His recent classes include Ministry of Sanctification: Priest, Ministers and Congregation (School of Theology); Journey of Transformation (University Core Curriculum); and Christianity and Culture in Dialogue (University Core Curriculum).
