“Seton Hall re-Collects” Art Exhibit

Walsh Gallery, 1st floor, Walsh Library

11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Seton Hall re-Collects draws from the vast collections of the university. This updated take on the theme includes archival objects, rare books, art and artifacts. Also on display are Renaissance paintings, Japanese toys, contemporary prints and photography, Chinese calligraphy, rare coins and historic ledgers dating to Seton Hall’s founding.

Martin Calvino: “Latino USA” Art Exhibit

Walsh Gallery, 1st floor, Walsh Library

11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

“Latino USA” is an art installation that illuminates the social justice issues related to mortgage lending for Latino applicants. The exhibit incorporates both data and technology to document and illustrate these biases.

Welcome Kickoff

Main Stage, University Green | 11:30 a.m.

Join President Joseph E. Nyre as he kicks off the day’s festivities. Get in the Pirate spirit as the Seton Hall cheerleaders and pep band showcase their crowd-pleasing performances.

DOVE’s University Weekend Philanthropy Project

University Green | 11:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Stop by DOVE’s table on the Green and help assemble care packages for families in need. The packages will be delivered to St. John’s Soup Kitchen in Newark.
