

Supplemental Life Insurance

Benefit Highlights

Seton Hall University - Class 1 - Staff

What is supplemental life insurance?	Supplemental life insurance is coverage that you pay for. Supplemental life insurance pays your beneficiary (please see below) a benefit if you die while you are covered. This highlight sheet is an overview of your supplemental life insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.
Am I eligible?	You are eligible if you are an active full time or part time employee who works at least 25 hours per week on a regularly scheduled basis.
When can I enroll?	You can enroll within 31 days of the date you have a change in family status, or within 31 days of the completion of your eligibility waiting period as stated in your group policy.
When is it effective?	Coverage goes into effect subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. You must be actively at work with your employer on the day your coverage takes effect.
How much supplemental life insurance can I purchase?	You can purchase supplemental life insurance in increments of 1 times your annual Earnings up to 3 times your annual Earnings. The maximum amount you can purchase cannot be more than 3 times your annual earnings or $200,000. Annual earnings are as defined in The Hartford's contract with your employer.
Am I guaranteed coverage?	This coverage is offered without requiring you to provide evidence of insurability.
What is a beneficiary?	Your beneficiary is the person (or persons) or legal entity (entities) who receives a benefit payment if you die while you are covered by the policy. You must select your beneficiary when you complete your enrollment application; your selection is legally binding.
Are there other limitations to enrollment?	If you do not enroll within 31 days of your first day of eligibility, you will be considered a late entrant. Typically, late entrants may need to show evidence of insurability and may be responsible for the cost of physical exams or other associated costs if they are required.

Spouse supplemental life insurance (includes domestic partner)	If you elect supplemental life insurance for yourself, you may choose to purchase spouse supplemental life insurance in the amount(s) of $5,000. Coverage cannot exceed 100% of the amount of your employee supplemental life insurance coverage. You may not elect coverage for your spouse if they are in active full-time military service or is already covered as an employee under this policy. If your spouse is confined in a hospital or elsewhere because of disability on the date his or her insurance would normally have become effective, coverage (or an increase in coverage) will be deferred until that dependent is no longer confined and has performed all the normal activities of a healthy person of the same age for at least 15 consecutive days. This coverage is offered without requiring your spouse to provide evidence of insurability.
Child(ren) supplemental life insurance	If you elect supplemental life insurance for yourself, you may choose to purchase child(ren) supplemental life insurance coverage in the amount(s) of $5,000 for each child – no medical information is required. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If your dependent child(ren) is confined in a hospital or elsewhere because of disability on the date his or her insurance would normally have become effective, coverage (or an increase in coverage) will be deferred until that dependent is no longer confined and has performed all the normal activities of a healthy person of the same age for at least 15 consecutive days. • Child(ren) must be unmarried and their age must be at least 15 days but not yet 19 years (or 23 years if a full time student) to be covered. • Unmarried child(ren) over age 19 may be covered if they are disabled and primarily dependent upon the employee for financial support. • Child(ren) at least 15 days but not yet age 6 months are limited to a reduced benefit of $100.
Does my coverage reduce as I get older?	At age 65 your coverage will reduce by 35% of the original amount. At age 70 and 75 your coverage will reduce by an additional 35% of previously reduced amount. At age 80, 85, 90 and 95 your coverage will reduce by an additional 25% of previously reduced. All coverage cancels at retirement.
Can I keep my Life coverage if I leave my employer?	Yes, subject to the contract, you have the option of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Converting your group life coverage to your own individual policy (policies). • If you leave your employer, portability is an option that allows you to continue your life insurance coverage. To be eligible, you must terminate your employment prior to Social Security Normal Retirement Age. This option allows you to continue all or a portion of your life insurance coverage under a separate portability term policy. Portability is subject to a minimum of $5,000 and a maximum of $250,000 and does include coverage for your spouse and child(ren). To elect portability, you must apply and pay the premium within 31 days of the termination of your life insurance. Evidence of insurability will not be required. Dependent spouse portability is subject to a maximum of $50,000. Dependent child(ren) portability is subject to a maximum of $10,000.
What is the living benefits option?	If you are diagnosed as terminally ill with a 12 month life expectancy, you may be eligible to receive payment of a portion of your life insurance. The remaining amount of your life insurance would be paid to your beneficiary when you die.

Do I still pay my life insurance premiums if I become disabled?	If you become totally disabled before age 60 and your disability lasts for at least 9 months, your life insurance premium may be waived. The premium for your dependent's coverage will also be waived if you are disabled and approved for waiver of premium. Coverage for your dependents will end if the policy terminates.

Important Details

As is standard with most term life insurance, this insurance coverage includes certain limitations and exclusions:

- the amount of your coverage may be reduced when you reach certain ages.
- death by suicide (two years).

Other exclusions may apply depending upon your coverage. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.

This benefit highlights sheet is an overview of the insurance being offered and is provided for illustrative purposes only and is not a contract. It in no way changes or affects the policy as actually issued. Only the insurance policy issued to the policyholder (your employer) can fully describe all of the provisions, terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of your insurance coverage. In the event of any difference between the benefit highlights sheet and the insurance policy, the terms of the insurance policy apply.
