QUESTION or CONCERN	CONTACT for SUPPORT
I want support for my mental health, stress, anxiety, depression, etc.	Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) — a free, confidential service for all students. In-person, crisis, group, and teletherapy services offered. Dare to Care — website featuring helpful videos THE WELL — a toolbox of self-help resources
I am struggling with basic needs like housing or food.	There are many resources, both on and off campus listed on this site — Providing for Our Students' Basic Needs. Also consult with DOVE or the Dean of Students Office.
I have a psychological, physical, auditory, medical, learning disability or other chronic condition and want to know about accommodations.	Disability Support Services (DSS) — provides support and accommodations to assure equal access to University programs.
I don't feel well. I think I might be sick. I need a vaccine or a physical. I want a wellness exam.	Health Services — available to all students, regardless of insurance. Staffed by MD, NP, and RNs, and accredited by AAAHC.
I want to talk with someone about a sexual assault or sexual misconduct.	Title IX Office or the Dean of Students Office are available as private reporting options. CAPS, Health Services, and the Priest Community are confidential reporting options. For more information, visit the Title IX website.
I experienced or witnessed a bias incident on campus and want to tell someone.	Report the incident to Public Safety or the Dean of Students. The Bias Education Support Team (BEST) is available for support-related resources.
