GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN

COLLEGE OF NURSING

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

Dear Incoming Graduate Nursing Students –

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the College of Nursing at Seton Hall University. We are delighted that you have chosen Seton Hall for the continuation of your nursing education.

As you are all aware, nursing education is constantly changing to keep up with the rapidly changing healthcare environment. This is a very exciting time for nursing, and advanced practice nurses have proven to be vital members of the healthcare team to ensure the health of our nation. We are fortunate to have a diverse student population in the College of Nursing which mirrors the population for whom our graduates will be caring. Being a diverse group of students with different learning styles and needs, we have many experienced faculty and varied programs and resources available to assist you to achieve positive educational outcomes.

Thank you for your decision to advance your nursing education and your commitment to the nursing profession.

Please let us know if you have questions.

Take care and welcome!

SIGNING ONTO THE GUEST NETWORK

The IHS campus additionally offers an open wireless "hotspot" style guest wireless network, like you would find at your local coffee shop, bookstore, etc.

- On your device look for and connect to wireless network called "guest".
- Your default web browser should launch, if not please launch your browser of choice (i.e. MS Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, etc). If you are presented with a security alert page, please choose the "I understand the risks" and/or "Advanced" option and proceed to website.
- On the first page choose the "Register for Guest Access" selection (see the picture below)

- Fill out the resulting form, (see the picture below)

- Fill out the resulting form, (see the picture below)

The screenshot shows the 'Guest Portal' header with the Seton Hall University logo. Below it is a 'Registration' section with the instruction 'Please complete this registration form:'. The form contains the following fields: 'First name' (highlighted with a blue glow), 'Last name', 'Email address*', 'Mobile number*', 'Company', 'SMS provider*' (a dropdown menu with 'ATT' selected), 'Person being visited(email)', and 'Reason for visit'. At the bottom are 'Register' and 'Cancel' buttons.

- Please note: your email address and your mobile telephone number are required in order to connect to the guest network.
- Also make sure to select your cell phone carrier, by default "ATT" is selected.
- Once you have filled out the informational form you will be asked if you wish the network to either email you and/or text you the login details.
- Access the email address you specified or check your mobile text message app for your unique username and password to access the network.
- Plug this information back onto the login screen to connect to guest wireless.

DUO NOTIFICATION

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

Duo Two-Factor Authentication

Two-factor authentication, sometimes referred to as multi-factor by your bank or credit card, adds a second layer of security to PirateNet. Two-factor helps to prevent anyone but you from logging in, even if they know your password. To preview the enrollment process, please review the enrollment guide.

If you have already enrolled and would like to update your phone number, phone, or other authentication method, open the Duo 2FA app in PirateNet.

You can still use Duo even when you don't have wireless coverage or cell service. If you have Duo set to automatically send a push notification or call your device, just click Cancel at the bottom of the webpage.

Next, click the green Enter a Passcode button on the webpage. Open the Duo app and tap Seton Hall University to generate a passcode, enter it on the webpage, and click the green Log In button.

When possible, we encourage you to use the "Push" option because it is the fastest, most efficient authentication method.

IHS CAMPUS PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Interprofessional Health Sciences Campus (IHSC) maintains parking facilities to meet the needs of the students, faculty, staff and visitors. The IHSC does not assume responsibility for security of vehicles or contents while parked on IHSC property. Parking and operating a motor vehicle on the IHS Campus is a privilege. Please see the campus map detailing where you are allowed to park for Immersion I. If you park adjacent to Lot #1 South on Medicine Way, you can park for free. If you park in any of the other locations highlighted in yellow, the cost will be $10.00 for the day.

- Must be a color photo and taken within the last 2 weeks.
- Must not include sunglasses or head coverings (e.g. hats)
- Must be positioned directly facing the camera.
- Eyes should be open and looking at the camera.
- Supporting document must be a government-issued photo ID (driver's license, passport, etc.).

COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES (CAPS)

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) offers a wide range of confidential, therapeutic services designed to foster the psychological health and well-being of our students in order help them to thrive, develop, and achieve academic and personal success. We embrace the diversity that is embodied in the community we serve, and we acknowledge that the individual needs of our students are unique. Thus, we treat each person with respect and dignity. Through collaboration with others across Seton Hall, we work to provide programs and services that build a supportive community for all.

Confidentiality

CAPS is a confidential resource, meaning that we cannot share information with anyone outside of CAPS (including parents) without the written consent from the student. The only exceptions to confidentiality are in the event of imminent risk of serious harm to self or others.

Students seeking services or to make an appointment may contact CAPS at:

Phone: (973) 761-9500

Appointment: Monday-Friday, 8:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Location: Mooney Hall 27

OFFICE OF DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES

You can request services from Disability Support Services (DSS) as soon as you are admitted to Seton Hall University or, if you are already enrolled in classes, as soon as you are diagnosed with a disability. While we recommend starting this process before the beginning of the semester, you may request assistance at any time during the year. Please note, however, that accommodations are effective beginning on the date the professor is notified via the accommodation letter; accommodations are not retroactive.

To request disability support services, you will need to do the following:

- Email dss@shu.edu to identify that you are interested in seeking out services.
- We will ask you to then complete a self-identification form that DSS staff will send you. This form can only be accessed through single sign on in our AIM system using your PirateNet credentials and should only be filled out by admitted or current students. We welcome prospective students interested in learning about services to contact DSS to ask questions or set-up a phone meeting to discuss their needs.
- Next, you will need to provide comprehensive information from a licensed professional who can document your disability. You can upload this information directly to your Self-ID form, which is preferred. Alternatively, you can send these items by email, mail, or FAX. Please visit our Documentation and Forms page for documentation guidelines specific to your disability.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Graduate Assistantships

Each academic year, Seton Hall offers a limited number of graduate assistantships.

Assistantships draw on a variety of different skills and require a presence on campus 20 hours each week. You can view information on open positions and submit your application online using the online employment website: jobs.shu.edu. Open Graduate Assistantship position can be located under the "Categories" section in the left-hand navigation.

Overview

- You must be admitted to a program before you can apply for a graduate assistantship.
- To apply, you must complete the application and upload your resume, and personal statement.
- Prospective employers seeking graduate assistants, review applications, conduct interviews and hire assistants. You will be contacted if they wish to interview you for an open position.
- If you are granted an assistantship, you will work for a department or office, such as the department of Biological Sciences.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the graduate assistantship program?

A graduate assistantship is an on-campus, part-time job for which the compensation includes both tuition remission and a small stipend. Assistantships are generally comprised of positions whose primary responsibilities may be related to teaching, research, or administrative work, and they may be available in a variety of academic departments and offices throughout the University.

Who is eligible to work as a graduate assistant?

Students who have been accepted into a degree program are eligible for assistantships. Assistantships are not available to non-matriculated students or students in certificate programs.

How do I apply for an Assistantship?

Apply for an assistantship online at jobs.shu.edu. Your complete application consists of the application form, your resume, and a personal statement.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

How do I get an Assistantship? How does it work?

Applications are reviewed by program directors, managers and or supervisors. You will be contacted if they wish to interview you for an open position.

Is there a deadline for applications?

There is no official deadline for applications, but most departments conduct hiring interviews in the spring semester for the following fall. There are very few mid-year appointments, so most applications are reviewed in the spring semester.

Can I apply for an assistantship at the same time as I apply to a graduate degree program?

No, you must be admitted to a degree (not certificate) program before you can be employed as a graduate assistant.

Where can I learn more about graduate assistantships?

For more information, please consult the Graduate Assistant Handbook.

Microsoft Teams

Launch Microsoft Teams

Microsoft Teams is an application where people can collaborate, hold meetings, and share files. It supports private and group conversations, and synchronous virtual classes can also be conducted using Microsoft Teams.

Follow these steps to launch Microsoft Teams:

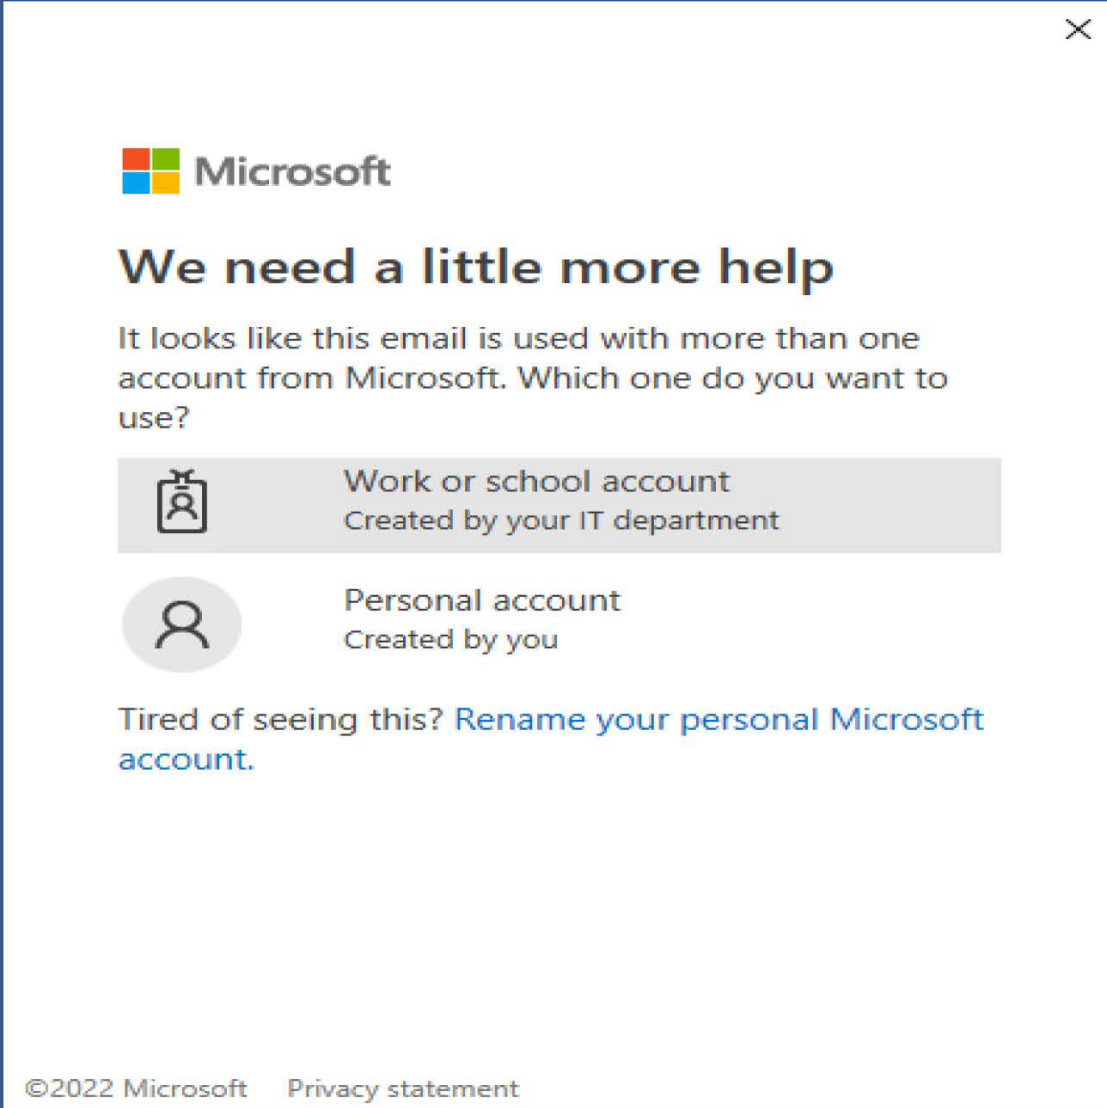

Microsoft Teams

Sign into Microsoft Teams

Once the Microsoft Teams has launched, you will be prompted to sign into a Microsoft account.

1. Enter your <username>@shu.edu, then select the Next button. For example, if your name is Mary Smith and your username is "smithmar", you will enter "smithmar@shu.edu."
2. You will be asked to specify if the account is a Work or school account or a Personal account. Select Work or school account.

TITLE IX

Title IX Statement to the Community

We at Seton Hall University are committed to fostering a positive working and learning community. We take this very seriously and accept our responsibility to help both students and employees understand the guidelines that are outlined in Title IX of the Education Act. We are committed to a university free from sexual harassment and sexual assault. Anything less is unacceptable.

We pledge to work toward this goal. Seton Hall provides many opportunities for education and understanding to address concerns about sexual harassment, sexual discrimination, and sexual violence. The resources that we provide are described throughout this site. We encourage our community to read, to question and to participate in the dialogue to foster a community welcoming to all.

- Watch for these emails: Sigma Updates, Gamma Nu Chapter Digests and others from STTI. Please check your spam for emails from: Sigma Theta Tau InternationalDoNotReply@connectedcommunity.org

Gamma Nu is Seton Hall University's Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau international. Chartered in 1978 as the 83rd Chapter, it currently has nearly 300 active members.

Criteria for Induction into Gamma Nu Chapter

Each Spring, Gamma Nu invites eligible CON students to join Sigma Theta Tau. Criteria for graduate students are:

- ✓ Completion of 25% of graduate curriculum
- ✓ GPA of 3.5 or greater
- ✓ demonstrated academic achievement, academic integrity and professional leadership potential.

Students who accept the invitation to join will be invited to the annual Induction Ceremony. Family and friends are welcome to attend this celebration.

New Gamma Nu members at the 2025 Induction Ceremony

Gamma Nu Activities include:

Meetings: Gamma Nu meets, usually virtually, most months during the academic year. All members are invited to attend.

Reinkemeyer Research Conference: The Annual Reinkemeyer Research Conference is held each spring and provides nurses and nursing students an opportunity to present their research and to learn about research conducted by others.

Induction Ceremony: Gamma Nu inducts new members each spring at a traditional ceremony and celebration. Family and friends are also welcome to attend.

Scholarships: Gamma Nu offers scholarships to nursing students at all levels. Applications for the Carolyn F. Rummel Scholarships are distributed each spring, and the scholarships are awarded at the Induction Celebration. Recipients must be active Gamma Nu members.

Research Awards: Financial support for research endeavors is available from Gamma Nu. Applications for the Francisca Champion Research Awards are distributed each winter, and the scholarships are awarded at the Induction Celebration. Recipients must be active Gamma Nu members.

Service Award: Each year, Gamma Nu awards the Mary Ann Scharf Joy of Nursing Award to recognize service to Gamma Nu and/ or the College of Nursing.

Book Club: Held mostly virtually, the Book Club discusses novels and nonfiction work about nurses and the nursing profession.

Magnificat Home: Gamma Nu provides financial support to the women living in Magnificat Home in Jersey City.

Gamma Nu maintains active participation in both Sigma Region 14 and the NJ Consortium of Sigma Chapters. Annually, Region 14 hosts a research conference and the NJ Consortium holds a Founders Day Celebration.

If you are interested in joining Gamma Nu or volunteering on a committee, please contact Maryanne Barra Schneider, President (maryanne.barraschneider@shu.edu). For more information about the Chapter, visit the Gamma Nu Website.
