

Celebrating 250 Years
OF LATINO IMPACT ON AMERICAN HISTORY

About the Exhibit

WELCOME TO Celebrating 250 Years of Latino Impact on American History, presented by the Joseph A. Unanue Latino Institute at Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ.

As the United States reflects on 250 years of history, this exhibit invites you to explore the transformative contributions of Latinos to the American story. From early foundations to present day leadership, Latinos have shaped the nation through innovation, service, culture, and resilience. This exhibit seeks to honor those stories, celebrate those achievements, and ensure they are seen, learned, and remembered. We encourage you to engage, reflect, and share what you discover.

This exhibit is available for download on our website and may be borrowed, at no cost, by schools, businesses, and community organizations. Donations to support this work are always appreciated but not required.

Thank you for being part of this important moment of recognition and learning.
