Grad PLUS LOAN FACTS

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS FOR GRADUATE PLUS LOAN BORROWERS

Graduate degree students can borrow a Direct PLUS Loan to help cover education expenses.

The terms and conditions applicable to PLUS Loans for parents also apply to PLUS Loans for graduate students.

Student applicants are required to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA SM). In addition, before you can receive a PLUS Loan, your school must have determined your maximum eligibility for Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford Loans.

Note: Before July 1, 2010, Graduate PLUS Loans were also made by private lenders under the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL SM) Program. As a result of recent legislation, no further loans will be made under the FFEL Program beginning July 1, 2010. All new Graduate PLUS Loans will come directly from the U.S. Department of Education under the Direct Loan Program.

How do I apply for a PLUS Loan?

For a PLUS Loan, you must complete a Direct PLUS Loan Application and Master Promissory Note (MPN). The MPN is a legal document in which you promise to repay the loan and any accrued interest and fees to the Department. It also explains the terms and conditions of the loan. In most cases, one MPN can be used for loans that you receive over several years of study, although a separate Loan Request must be filed for each school year. If you previously signed an MPN to receive an FFEL PLUS loan, you will need to sign a new MPN for a Direct PLUS Loan.

How much can I borrow?

The maximum PLUS Loan amount you can borrow is your Cost Of Attendance (determined by the school) minus any other Financial Aid awarded by your school. There is no set dollar amount. Contact the Financial Aid Office or view your award package for the estimated amount you are eligible to borrow.
