

THE BERNARD J. LONERGAN INSTITUTE
ANNOUNCES THE PUBLICATION OF
THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY ISSUE OF
THE LONERGAN REVIEW

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. – October 7, 2019 – The Bernard J. Lonergan Institute at Seton Hall University announces the publication of the Tenth Anniversary of its journal, The Lonergan Review on the topic of “Dialectic and Discernment.”

The anniversary issue includes an Introduction by Gregory Floyd, a retrospective by Monsignor Richard Liddy, editor; articles by Tad Dunne, Frederick Lawrence, Patrick Byrne, Richard Grallo, Louis Roy OP, Donato Infante III and book reviews by Stephen Ferguson, Brian Himes, Brian Bajzek and John Laracy. The issue also includes the full list of contents of The Lonergan Review, vols. I-IX.

The issue is available online now and our print version will be mailed out in a few short weeks. An online access subscription provides full-text access to all issues -- volume I to the present during the current calendar year.

To renew, and/or obtain a gift subscription, you may renew via internet, by check or by phone. Please see information below.

ABOUT THE Bernard J. Lonergan Institute

Founded in 2006 under the direction of Msgr. Richard M. Liddy, the Bernard J. Lonergan Institute at Seton Hall University supports research and scholarship on the work of Bernard Lonergan and publishes The Lonergan Review. It conducts faculty development programs, lectures and conferences worldwide. For more information about the institute, please visit: <https://www13.shu.edu/catholic-mission/lonergan/index.cfm>

ABOUT The Lonergan Review

Published annually since 2009, The Lonergan Review publishes significant interdisciplinary articles in the field of Lonergan studies by both seasoned and new scholars. Some of its volumes have been the outcome of international conferences—such as at Universita Sacro Cuore (Piacenza, Italy) in 2009, Seton Hall University in 2010, and Oxford in 2013. It is distributed by Philosophy Documentation Center. An “Index of Contents” can be found on the Lonergan Institute website.

For more information about The Lonergan Review and to subscribe please visit <https://www.pdcnet.org/lonerganreview/The-Lonergan-Review> or contact the Editorial Office at 973.275.2431
submissions: lonerganreviewsubmissions@shu.edu - e-mail: lonerganinstitute@shu.edu

ABOUT SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

For over 150 years, Seton Hall University has been a catalyst for leadership, developing the whole student, mind, heart and spirit. Seton Hall combines the resources of a large university with the personal attention of a small liberal arts college. Its attractive suburban campus is only 14 miles by train, bus or car to New York City, with the wealth of employment, internship, cultural and entertainment opportunities the city offers. Seton Hall is a Catholic university that embraces students of all races and religions, challenging each to better the world through integrity, compassion and a commitment to serving others. For more information, please visit: www.shu.edu

