RE: Interfaith Clergy Breakfast April 7th

DATE: March 19, 2020

Dear Faith-Based Partners & Invited Guests:

First, I hope and pray you along with your families are safe as we all cope with this unparalleled dilemma COVID-19. Undoubtedly, these are exceptionally challenging times which requires faith and strength in the Almighty Heavenly Father. Disappointingly, given the restrictions imposed by the Centers for Disease Control and Preventions (CDC) regarding gatherings of 50 or more persons, Seton Hall University has decided to postpone the Spring Interfaith Clergy Breakfast scheduled for Tuesday, April 7th, 2020.

Over the coming weeks, we will be monitoring developments to determine an appropriate time to reschedule this remarkable event. In the interim, I will continue to remain in touch with you through the weekly nuggets. As the hymn "In Times Like These" reminds us all:

"In times like these, we need a Savior"

"In times like these, we need an anchor"

"Be very sure, be very sure"

“Your anchor holds and grips the Solid Rock!”

Let us press forward with the self-assurance that all shall be well, all shall be well because Moses, the Great Old Testament Prophet confirms that; “The Eternal God is thou dwelling place, and under thee is His everlasting arms, He shall thrust the enemy from before thee, and declares destroy”.
