

The 17th Annual Graduate Student/School Teacher Symposium on Japanese Studies

Friday, April 11, 2014

Beck Rooms, University Library
Seton Hall University

MC: Prof. Gary Andrasko, Asian Studies Program

9:00-9:25 a.m. Registration & Refreshment

9:25 a.m. Welcome

Prof. Shigeru Osuka, Director of Japanese Program

9:30 a.m. Panel #1 Historical Investigation on Japanese Politics

Chair & Discussant: Prof. Gary Andrasko, Asian Studies Program

A Comparative Analysis of the Shogun: The Shikken Hojo Shigetoki (1198-1261) and Ogosho Tokugawa Ieyasu (1543-1616)

Malissa B Eaddy

The Alternate Attendance (Sankin-kotai) and its Impact on Japanese Society

Mario Maximous

10:15 a.m. Panel #2 Arts and political Reforms in Japanese Tradition

Chair & Discussant: Prof. Shigeru Osuka, Japanese Program

Ogata Kōrin (1658-1716) - Sōtatsu (d. c 1643) - Kōetsu (1558-1637): Rinppa School Masters
Kyle Hilton

Economic and Political Reform Thought of Honda Toshiaki (1744-1821)

QiQi

11:00 a.m. Panel #3 Japanese Economy and Politics in the Past, Present, and Future

Chair & Discussant: Prof. Edwin Leung, Asian Studies Program

The Sugar Trade between Japan and China during Edo Period

Xiaolu Zhang

Korea-Japan Treaty 1965 and Dokdo/Takeshima Issues

Gabriel Thompson

Immediate Postwar Economic Policies of Japan
Michael Stone

12:15 p.m. Luncheon

1:30 p.m. Keynote Speech

Taking Performance Seriously: Ritual in East Asian Thought

Dr. Thomas Radice (MA in Asian Studies, Seton Hall 2001; Ph.D. UPenn 2006), Associate Professor, Southern Connecticut University

2:30 p.m. Panel #4 New Waves on Japanese Language Education in the U.S.

Chair & Discussant: Hiroko Ishikawa, Japanese Program

Compound Verbs in Japanese Foreign Language Education
Thomas Hart

Utilizing Kokugo as a Means of Teaching Gitaigo and Giongo in the Japanese L2 Classroom
Abigail Nanquil

3:20 p.m. Closing Remark

Prof. Gary Andrasko, Asian Studies Program